

Whether it's coping with grief, substance abuse, depression, anxiety, or any of life's many challenges, our counselors are here to help both children and adults.

We are a state-certified mental health and AODA clinic offering affordable counseling services to families and individuals of all ages in Dodge County who:

- Have a household income under 200% of the Federal Poverty Level, and
  - Do not have any primary health insurance
  - Or are insured by Forward Health/WI Medicaid

Counseling is available at our offices in Beaver Dam.

Children's counseling is also available at many of the school buildings within the Beaver Dam Unified School District and also the Waupun Area School District. For more information contact your child's guidance counselor.

MENTAL HEALTH
COUNSELING SERVICES

Doug Schefft M.S., LPC

Doug Schefft, M.S., LPC, is a licensed counselor, specializing in children's counseling. Doug has over 25 year's experience as a therapist providing services to a variety of clientele in the community.

“When I can help others achieve their goals and be successful, I know I've done my job well. I have an appreciation of what the needs of a community are, and how to help be part of a team to make real change.

On a personal note, I am happily married and the proud grandfather of two young granddaughters who help keep me young.”

Jeana Meyer M.S., LPC, SAC

Jeana Meyer, M.S., LPC , SAC is a licensed counselor specializing in treating anxiety, depression, PTSD, conflict resolution, and addictions. Jeana has experience with dual diagnosis substance abuse issues as a therapist in a residential treatment program.

“I really work to compassionately understand my clients as unique individuals and walk alongside them offering support as they seek their own solutions.”

Jeana is a former middle and high school educator who enjoys interacting with all ages; especially young adults and elementary aged children.

Melissa Kempfer

Melissa Kempfer is our Mental Health Program Manager. She is an integral part to our mental health programs and she works closely with the Lead Therapist.

Dan Doyle M.S., SAC-IT
