

Return to Worship Reminder

A reminder we will be returning to virtual worship in partnership with First Lutheran Church of Leechburg beginning Sunday, July 5 at 9:30 and Communion will be offered the first and third Sunday of each month. Please review the following congregant actions when attending worship service:

Congregant Actions

The following will be expected of each congregant:

1. Masks are required, and you must bring your own. The church will not provide masks.
2. Before congregants enter the church, temperatures will be taken. Anyone with a temperature higher than 100 will not be permitted to enter the church.
3. Attendance will be taken at all services.
4. You may bring your own hand sanitizer; however, hand sanitizer will be available in all pews.
5. Congregants are expected to practice good personal hygiene and to remain at home if ill.
6. Congregant must notify the church office if diagnosed with the Coronavirus. In turn, the office will send out an email and letter advising that a diagnosis has been made in the congregation.
7. Those individuals that may have been in contact with the diagnosed individual will be expected to self-quarantine for the required 14 days.
8. Congregants will leave hymnals, bibles, and sanitizer on the pew seat when leaving worship to be sanitized and replaced in the pew rack.
9. Congregants will be dismissed by row at the end of the service. This will ensure the continued practice of social distancing.
10. Congregants will take any printed material distributed for the worship service with them. It is not to be left in the pew or placed in the trash can.
