Scripture Readings

FIRST READING: Isaiah 55:1-5

God invites Israel to a great feast at which both food and drink are free. God also promises to make an everlasting covenant with all peoples, with promises that previously had been limited to Israel. As David was a witness to the nations, these nations shall now acknowledge the ways in which God has glorified Israel.

¹Ho, everyone who thirsts, come to the waters; and you that have no money, come, buy and eat! Come, buy wine and milk without money and without price. ²Why do you spend your money for that which is not bread, and your labor for that which does not satisfy? Listen carefully to me, and eat what is good, and delight yourselves in rich food. ³Incline your ear, and come to me; listen, so that you may live. I will make with you an everlasting covenant, my steadfast, sure love for David. ⁴See, I made him a witness to the peoples, a leader and commander for the peoples. ⁵See, you shall call nations that you do not know, and nations that do not know you shall run to you, because of the LORD your God, the Holy One of Israel, for he has glorified you.

PSALM: Psalm 145:8-9, 14-21

You open wide your hand and satisfy the desire of every living thing. (Ps. 145:16)

⁸The LORD is gracious and full of compassion, slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love.

⁹LORD, you are good to all,
and your compassion is over all your works. R

¹⁴The Lord upholds all those who fall
and lifts up those who are bowed down.

¹⁵The eyes of all wait upon you, O LORD,
and you give them their food in due season.

¹⁶You open wide your hand
and satisfy the desire of every living thing.

¹⁷You are righteous in all your ways and loving in all your works. R

¹⁸You are near to all who call upon you,
to all who call upon you faithfully.

¹⁹You fulfill the desire of those who fear you;
you hear their cry and save them.

²⁰You watch over all those who love you,
but all the wicked you shall destroy.

²¹My mouth shall speak the praise of the LORD;

let all flesh bless God's holy name forever and ever. R

SECOND READING: Romans 9:1-5

This begins a new section in Paul's letter in which he will deal with the place of Israel in God's saving plan. He opens by highlighting how Israel's heritage and legacy include being God's children, having God's covenants, being given God's law, participating in worship of God, and receiving divine promises.

¹I am speaking the truth in Christ—I am not lying; my conscience confirms it by the Holy Spirit—²I have great sorrow and unceasing anguish in my heart. ³For I could wish that I myself were accursed and cut off from Christ for the sake of my own people, my kindred according to the flesh. ⁴They are Israelites, and to them belong the adoption, the glory, the covenants, the giving of the law, the worship, and the promises; ⁵to them belong the patriarchs, and from them, according to the flesh, comes the Messiah, who is over all, God blessed forever. Amen.

GOSPEL: Matthew 14:13-21

After John the Baptist is murdered, Jesus desires a time of solitude. Still, his compassion for others will not allow him to dismiss those who need him, and he is moved to perform one of his greatest miracles.

¹³Now when Jesus heard [about the beheading of John the Baptist,] he withdrew from there in a boat to a deserted place by himself. But when the crowds heard it, they followed him on foot from the towns. ¹⁴When he went ashore, he saw a great crowd; and he had compassion for them and cured their sick. ¹⁵When it was evening, the disciples came to him and said, "This is a deserted place, and the hour is now late; send the crowds away so that they may go into the villages and buy food for themselves." ¹⁶Jesus said to them, "They need not go away; you give them something to eat." ¹⁷They replied, "We have nothing here but five loaves and two fish." ¹⁸And he said, "Bring them here to me." ¹⁹Then he ordered the crowds to sit down on the grass. Taking the five loaves and the two fish, he looked up to heaven, and blessed and broke the loaves, and gave them to the disciples, and the disciples gave them to the crowds. ²⁰And all ate and were filled; and they took up what was left over of the broken pieces, twelve baskets full. ²¹And those who ate were about five thousand men, besides women and children.

OFFERTORY PRAYER

God of goodness and growth, all creation is yours, and your faithfulness is as firm as the heavens. Water and word, wine and bread:
these are signs of your abundant grace. Nourish us through these gifts, that we might proclaim your steadfast love in our communities and in the world, through Jesus Christ, our strength and our song. Amen.

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

God of the welcome table, in this meal we have feasted on your goodness and have been united by your presence among us. Empower us to go forth sustained by these gifts so that we may share your neighborly love with all, through Jesus Christ, the giver of abundant life. Amen.

LECTIONARY 18

Unreasonable Love

Imagine throwing an impromptu dinner party for thousands of people. Looking out at the huge crowd, would you think, "Yeah, we can do this. It'll be fun!"? Or would you look in your fridge, cupboards, and freezer and become absolutely certain there was not enough to go around?

It is normal and human to look at the supplies available and make a judgment about whether or not something can be accomplished. It's reasonable, even! But God's kingdom is not reasonable. God's kingdom defies all of our human expectations. It is not reasonable that the last shall be first. It is not reasonable that God would pour forgiveness on us when we hardly know how to confess. It is not reasonable that the disciples could feed thousands of people with just a few loaves and fishes.

Thanks be to God for the unreasonable, unexpected grace we find in the kingdom! May we brim with gratitude that where we see limits, God knows what is possible. When we stare in shock at the Son of God nailed to the cross, we are sure it's the end of the story, but God knows differently: love and life are unreasonably more abundant than hatred and death.

When we bring whatever "loaves and fishes" we have in our cupboards to God, God blesses them and makes of them enough. At the Lord's table, we find the mystery of Christ's abundant presence in the bread and the wine. At the font, we are joined to the immeasurable, eternal covenant of being God's beloved through the profuse waters of baptism. It's preposterous, really, how lavishly, how unreasonably God loves the world! Let us rejoice in God's unreasonable love and mercy, and join the feast.

During these unusual times we know that supporting Bethesda is important to you. We would like to let you know of ways that you can continue to support Bethesda with your contributions.

Mail is being collected at the church so you may continue to use your envelopes and send them to the church.

Electronic Giving or eGiving is providing members with several options to give their offering instead of writing a check or putting cash in your envelope. One option available for your giving is by using your Smartphone or iPad.

- Go to either the App Store or Google Play and search for "GivePlus Church" to download for free. Once you have the app installed, you won't need to download again and after you set up your bank information, it is very quick to give your offering.

- When you first start the app, enter Bethesda or tap Find Churches Near Me to start your search. Select the church and this will be your default church.
- Go to Give Now and the funds that you can contribute to will be displayed. Scan or enter your card or bank account information and you are set up for any giving that you would like to give to the church. You are able to update your information at any time.

We have now added the option to give on-line from our website so if you go to the Bethesda website at <https://www.bethesdaelc3084.org>, there is a Giving option at the top for you to follow that will take you directly to Vanco to select your giving options. You may contribute from your bank or use a credit card. Vanco is a secure site and does not use your information for any other purpose other than making your contribution to Bethesda. eGiving helps to save on time counting and allows you the freedom to forget about using envelopes.

Give Plus+ offers a mobile app for Android and iPhone. Go to Google Play Store or Apple iOS, install the Give Plus+ app and follow the directions to set up mobile giving.
