MAY NEWSLETTER

2018

Congregation, Parents, and Youth,

Congratulations to all of the new Confirmands receiving the gift of the Lord's Supper. We look forward to continuing their ongoing catechesis in youth group. Congratulations to all the graduates as well in high school and college. We will miss our three seniors this year: Brittany Conrad, Cole Louison, and Grace Bauermeister. They have been a great addition to the youth group and we wish them well during their time in college.

We said goodbye to our seniors and Nathan Wille on April 22nd. Seniors received an alumni certificate and a picture frame with memories from their four years of service. The party had a black and yellow theme for Iowa Hawkeyes, Nathan's favorite football team. All will be greatly missed.

Looking forward in this busy month of May, the second Sunday is Mother's Day so we will not have Youth Group. The fourth Sunday is Memorial Day Weekend in which case we will have youth group on the 20th instead. We are planning a trip to Cedar Pointe with some of the other Decatur Circuit youth groups in May/June. We are also planning on having a garage sale sometime in June.

God's Blessings!
