INTERN OF THE WEEK

Norwell High School

MAR 13, 2023

RieAnn Krinn, was selected to receive the Norwell High School Intern of the Week award. She did her first semester experience at Bethlehem Lutheran School with 5th/6th grade teacher Mr. Peter Meyer. This semester RieAnn is interning at Parkview Medical Center in pediatrics with supervisor Jennifer Wulpi. RieAnn is the daughter of Matt and Shelley Krinn and a Bethlehem graduate.

With Mr. Meyer, RieAnn got to observe classroom and behavioral management styles. She helped students one on one and actually led some activities with the entire class. At Parkview peds., Rieann gets to job shadow with nurses and technicians who give care to patients ranging in age from infants up to 18 years of age. Most patients are recovering from surgeries or specific illnesses.

After graduation, RieAnn plans to attend Indiana University at Indianapolis to study health sciences. Her ultimate career goal is to become a pediatric doctor.

In 3rd/4th Grade we have a very special guest who has been visiting us on a regular basis, Georgelina is a very special monkey who is keeping MaKayla's chair occupied while Makayla is out receiving treatment or is unable to come to school.

There's a Monkey in My Chair is a wonderful program that has helped our class stay connected to MaKayla when she is not able to be at school. As you can see Georgelina works just as hard as the students.

Although we enjoy having Georgelina in class we can't wait for MaKayla's treatment to be over and when she is able to be back with our class.

Please continue to keep MaKayla, her family and our class in your prayers as we all try to support MaKayla during this difficult time.-MAKAYLA STRONG! One TOUGH Cookie!

The faculty is excited to announce this year's school musical: "Are We There Yet"

Miriam tells the story of the Exodus, how her brother Moses was called by God to lead his people out of slavery and to the promised land.

Mission Statement

In loving response to Christ, the Servant, the Orphan Grain Train movement encourages and enables God's people to share personal and material resources in bringing Christ's name and character to needy people both far and near. Sometimes that character expresses itself as a word well spoken, sometimes as a bandage well applied, and sometimes as a child well fed.

What is Orphan Grain Train?

Orphan Grain Train is a 501c3 Nonprofit Christian volunteer network that shares personal and material resources with needy people in America and around the world. Grain Train volunteers gather donations of clothing, medical supplies, food, Christian literature, and other aid to meet real needs. The Orphan Grain Train movement is a loving response to Jesus Christ's example as a servant and His love for us.

Present Day

Since 1992, Orphan Grain Train's 27 regional locations have delivered more than 45 million fortified-rice meals and 4,230 shipments of humanitarian aid to needy people in several states and 69 countries on 5 continents. Orphan Grain Train built a mobile chapel with help from a grant funded by LCMS Disaster Relief division for St. John's Lutheran Church in Pilger, NE after their church was demolished by a F4 tornado. In October 2017 hurricane Michael ravaged the shoreline of Texas and a majority of Houston. Michael left behind homes and businesses in ruins and lives lost. Orphan Grain Train purchased and delivered 15 shipments of building construction materials and 5 semi-loads of groceries to help stock shelves in a food pantry feeding volunteers and those that have lost everything. In October 2018 OGT had 400 turkeys delivered for Thanksgiving meals to those still living in desperation a year later. The mission of Orphan Grain Train is uniquely dependent upon dedicated volunteers, many of whom have given numerous years of service for the sake of others. Since 1992, more than 4 million hours have been volunteered!

Orphan Grain Train is a recognized service organization (RSO) of the Lutheran Church – Missouri Synod (LCMS). Many shipments have been in cooperation with Lutheran Hour Ministries, LCMS World Mission, LCMS World Relief, and other Christian ministries.

Principal's Message

Easter means Forgiveness and Peace

Alleluia! Christ is risen! He is risen indeed! Alleluia!

The resurrection of Jesus is the foundation of our faith. St. Paul even says that if Christ has not been raised, then our preaching is in vain and your faith is in vain (1 Cor. 15:14). That means, if Jesus didn't really rise from the dead then Christianity is a false religion. He goes on to say, And if Christ has not been raised, your faith is futile and you are still in your sins (1 Cor. 15:17). So, if Jesus didn't really rise from the dead then Christianity is also a useless religion. If Jesus didn't really rise from the dead then we are still under the power of sin and death.

What this means is that the message of Easter is more than just "Jesus is alive again." The message of the Easter is bigger and more powerful than just the fact that one man came back to life. The resurrection of this one Man means something. It means forgiveness and peace.

On the evening of that first Easter day, the first day of the week, the doors being locked where the disciples were for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them and said to them, "Peace be with you." When He had said this, He showed them His hands and His side. Then the disciples were glad when they saw the Lord (John 20:19-20). The very first words out of the risen Lord's mouth are "Peace be with you." Jesus can say that because of what His death and resurrection accomplished for us. His death paid the price for our sins and His resurrection destroyed the power of death. So, the full message of Easter is that Jesus died and rose again, and because He lives our sins are forgiven and we have peace with God.

But this forgiveness and peace is not limited to our personal relationship with God. Jesus shared His peace with the disciples as a group, a community, a family. And He gave them the power to share His forgiveness within that holy community, known as the Church (John 20:22-23). So, the forgiveness and peace of Jesus is spread among us. We share it with one another. This means that the life of Easter, the new life of forgiveness and peace is lived out by Christians in the Church, in our homes, and even in our school. Everything we say and do should be filled and motivated by these three parts of the Easter message: Jesus lives. Sins are forgiven. Be at peace.

Alleluia! Christ is risen! He is risen indeed! Alleluia!

Your servant in Christ,

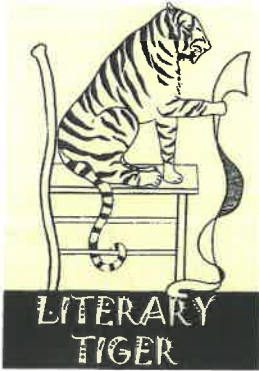

Pastor Anthony Dodgers

On March 9, the 5th through 8th grades went on a field trip to the Neil Armstrong Air & Space Museum in Wapakoneta, Ohio, Neil Armstrong's hometown. It was an interesting visit with group activities, a guided tour of the museum, a video, and free time to explore. Highlights in the museum included the Gemini VIII shuttle and a replica of the spacesuit Armstrong wore when he became the first man to walk on the moon.

The 7th and 8th graders were interviewed by the Kindergarteners about what kinds of buildings are in their communities. This helped the Kindergarteners with their Social Studies Fair projects.

Tales for Tigers

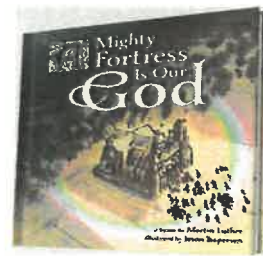

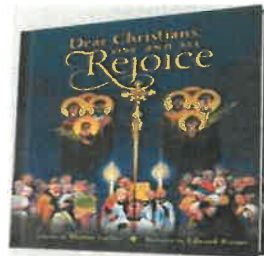

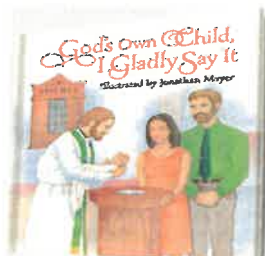

From Your Bethlehem School Library

Think about your favorite hymn. Maybe one we sing at Chapel time, or one you sing at home before bed. Now, close your eyes, and visualize pictures for the hymn. You'll probably imagine some beautiful images!

The words of hymns are like poems, and they can paint a picture in our minds of what we are singing about. It's easy to think of a picture for familiar phrases like "a mighty fortress" and "trusty shield". Some things we may have to ponder for a while to choose an image, especially if the words are a little complicated or we aren't sure what they mean. But that's good brain work – and helps us understand, and enjoy, the hymns even more!

Everyone imagines something a little bit different (your "trusty shield" may be red painted wood, but the one in my head is silver), and some of the new books in our library give us a chance to see what some artists imagine for their favorite hymns. These beautiful books are a nice way to practice and learn the hymn, and may inspire you to make your own hymn illustrations.

Happy Reading! (And singing!)

Book Review by Emma Campbell, 3rd Grade

The book Bright Valley of Love is sad and happy. It's about a boy named Gunther. He had a bone disorder. He lived with his grandparents. He didn't leave his room until he was six. Then he left his home and went to Bethel and he made a friend and learned how to sing from hymnals. A fun fact, it is a real story and the author met Gunther. I hope you read the book!

On behalf of the Wells County Farm Bureau, the book "I Love Strawberries", has been donated to our library.

Tips for Being More Active

Physical activity is important for children and adults of all ages. Being active as a family can benefit everyone. Adults need 2½ hours a week of physical activity, and children need 60 minutes a day.

1. Make time

Find time in the week when the whole family is around and spend it being active. Try doing something physical after dinner or begin the weekend with a Saturday morning walk.

2. Plan ahead and track your progress

Write your physical activity plans on a family calendar. Let the kids help in planning the activities. Allow them to check it off after completing each activity.

3. Include work around the house

Have the kids help with yard work and other active chores around the house. Have them help you with raking, weeding, planting or vacuuming.

4. Use what's available

Plan things that require little or no equipment or facilities. Examples include walking, jogging, jumping rope, playing tag and dancing. Find out what programs your community recreation center might offer for free or for a minimal charge.

5. Plan for all weather conditions

Try things that don't depend on the weather conditions. Think mall walking, indoor swimming or active video games. And whenever the weather is nice, get outside!

6. Turn off the TV

Set a rule that no one can spend longer than 2 hours per day playing video games, watching TV and using the computer (except for school work). Instead of a TV show, play a family game, dance to favorite music or go for a walk.

7. Start small

Begin by starting one new family activity and add more when you feel everyone is ready. Take the dog for a longer walk, play another ball game or go to an additional exercise class.

8. Include other families

Invite others to join your family activities. This is a great way for you and your kids to spend time with friends while exercising. Plan parties with active games such as bowling or an obstacle course, sign up for family programs at the YMCA or join a recreational club.

9. Treat the family with fun physical activity

When it's time to celebrate as a family, do something active as a reward. Plan a trip to the zoo, park or lake to treat the family.

Stress Awareness Month: 6 Signs Your Child is Stressed

As adults, we're bound to feel stressed out from time to time. After all, bills have to be paid, work has to get done and food has to be put on the table. However, it's easy to miss the fact that our kids can sometimes get stressed out, too. Homework, extracurricular activities, and conflicts with peers can all take a toll on your little ones. And chronic stress can have negative effects on our kids – especially since they often don't have the tools to cope. Therefore, in honor of Stress Awareness Month, here are six signs and symptoms your kid might be stressed:

1. Withdrawn Behavior
2. Unexplained Aches and Pains
3. Sleeplessness (or Sleeping More)
4. Loss of Appetite or Overeating

5. Irritability
6. They Tell You

If you notice any of these signs of stress, don't panic. There are ways to help equip your kids with the tools they need to not only deal with the stress they have now, but also throughout their entire lives. Following these tips to help your child deal with stress.

1. Talk About It
2. Provide Effective Strategies
3. Handle Stress Yourself by Modeling
