JOHN 8:32

+ Reformation +
October 28-29, 2023

AS WE GATHER

Reformation is a day to remember and celebrate that the Church founded by Jesus Christ is a living entity. Through the centuries, God has shaped the Church and then reshaped it, again and again, so that every generation may experience the Gospel in language it can understand. Throughout these changes, God has preserved His Word and Sacraments. Like the Church, we as individuals are in the process of being shaped by God. We are the clay. God is the potter. And just as He created us and all things, so one day in Christ will we and all things be re-created, and all that is now misshapen or broken will be restored.

REGARDING COMMUNION

When we gather at the Lord's Table, the cup of blessing we receive is a sharing in the blood of Christ; the bread we break is a sharing in the body of Christ. We who are many are one bread and body in Christ (I Cor. 10:16-17). As a people baptized into the life of God the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, Jesus comes to us in this holy meal to renew us individually and together in our life of faith and following him. Since Christian denominations have differing understandings of Holy Communion, if you are not a member of a Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod congregation and have not communed here before, we ask that you speak with the pastor or elder prior to communing with us the first time. Those not communing are invited to cross their arms over their chests and approach the pastor for a blessing during the distribution. Also, if certain factors prohibit you from partaking of regular wine, non-alcoholic wine is available in the center circle of the tray. If you would like to begin sharing this sacred meal with us on a regular basis, please ask the pastor for a time of faith instruction and formation.

If you are in need of a gluten-free wafer for Communion, please let Pastor or an Elder know.

Liturgical Color:

Red is the color of lifeblood and is associated with the Holy Spirit.

Visitors: We are glad you have chosen to be with us today! We would especially like to follow-up with you beyond today, so please take a moment to leave your best contact information in the guest books at each entrance/exit. A cry-room for parents and children is just off from the front entryway, and there's a wonderful nursery downstairs at the end of the fellowship hall for you to make use of at any time. Do you have any questions about anything here? Don't hesitate to ask one of the ushers or elders or talk to the pastor.

Confession and Absolution

The sign of the cross † may be made by all in remembrance of their Baptism.

Confession and Absolution.....page 213

P In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.

C Amen.

P Beloved in the Lord! Let us draw near with a true heart and confess our sins unto God our Father, beseeching Him in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ to grant us forgiveness.

P Our help is in the name of the Lord.

C who made heaven and earth.

P I said, I will confess my transgressions unto the Lord.

C and You forgave the iniquity of my sin.

P O almighty God, merciful Father,

C I, a poor, miserable sinner, confess unto You all my sins and iniquities with which I have ever offended You and justly deserved Your temporal and eternal punishment. But I am heartily sorry for them and sincerely repent of them, and I pray You of Your boundless mercy and for the sake of the holy, innocent, bitter sufferings and death of Your beloved Son, Jesus Christ, to be gracious and merciful to me, a poor, sinful being.

P Upon this your confession, I, by virtue of my office, as a called and ordained servant of the Word, announce the grace of God unto all of you, and in the stead and by the command of my Lord Jesus Christ I forgive you all your sins in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.

C Amen.

Salutation

P The Lord be with you.

C And also with you.

P Let us pray.

Collect of the Day (spoken in unison)

Almighty and gracious Lord, pour out Your Holy Spirit on Your faithful people. Keep us steadfast in Your grace and truth, protect and deliver us in times of temptation, defend us against all enemies, and grant to Your Church Your saving peace; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

First Reading Revelation 14:6-7

Then I saw another angel flying directly overhead, with an eternal gospel to proclaim to those who dwell on earth, to every nation and tribe and language and people. And he said with a loud voice, "Fear God and give him glory, because the hour of his judgment has come, and worship him who made heaven and earth, the sea and the springs of water."

P This is the Word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

Psalm 46 (spoken in unison)

God is our refuge and strength,
a very present help in trouble.

Therefore we will not fear though the earth gives way, though the mountains be moved into the heart of the sea,
though its waters roar and foam,
though the mountains tremble at its swelling.

There is a river whose streams make glad the city of God,
the holy habitation of the Most High.

God is in the midst of her; she shall not be moved;
God will help her when morning dawns.

The nations rage, the kingdoms totter;
he utters his voice, the earth melts.

The LORD of hosts is with us;
the God of Jacob is our fortress.

Come, behold the works of the LORD,
how he has brought desolations on the earth.

He makes wars cease to the end of the earth;
he breaks the bow and shatters the spear;
he burns the chariots with fire.

“Be still, and know that I am God.
I will be exalted among the nations,
I will be exalted in the earth!”

The LORD of hosts is with us;
the God of Jacob is our fortress.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son
and to the Holy Spirit;

as it was in the beginning,
is now, and will be forever. Amen.

Epistle Reading Romans 3:19-28

Now we know that whatever the law says it speaks to those who are under the law, so that every mouth may be stopped, and the whole world may be held accountable to God. For by works of the law no human being will be justified in his sight, since through the law comes knowledge of sin.

But now the righteousness of God has been manifested apart from the law, although the Law and the Prophets bear witness to it— the righteousness of God through faith in Jesus Christ for all who believe. For there is no distinction: for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God, and are justified by his grace as a gift, through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus, whom God put forward as a propitiation by his blood, to be received by faith. This was to show God’s righteousness, because in his divine forbearance he had passed over former sins. It was to show his righteousness at the present time, so that he might be just and the justifier of the one who has faith in Jesus.

Then what becomes of our boasting? It is excluded. By what kind of law? By a law of works? No, but by the law of faith. For we hold that one is justified by faith apart from works of the law.

P This is the Word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

Holy Gospel Matthew 11:12-19

P The Holy Gospel according to St. Matthew, the eleventh chapter.

C Glory to You, O Lord.

[Jesus said:] "From the days of John the Baptist until now the kingdom of heaven has suffered violence, and the violent take it by force. For all the Prophets and the Law prophesied until John, and if you are willing to accept it, he is Elijah who is to come. He who has ears to hear, let him hear.

"But to what shall I compare this generation? It is like children sitting in the marketplaces and calling to their playmates,

"We played the flute for you, and you did not dance; we sang a dirge, and you did not mourn."

For John came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, 'He has a demon.' The Son of Man came eating and drinking, and they say, 'Look at him! A glutton and a drunkard, a friend of tax collectors and sinners!' Yet wisdom is justified by her deeds."

P This is the Gospel of the Lord.

C Praise to You, O Christ.

- P The Lord be with you.
- C And also with you.
- P Lift up your hearts.
- C We lift them to the Lord.
- P Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
- C It is right to give Him thanks and praise.
- P It is truly good, right, and salutary that we should at all times and in all places give thanks to You, O Lord, holy Father, almighty and everlasting God, for the countless blessings You so freely bestow on us and all creation. Above all, we give thanks for Your boundless love shown to us when You sent Your only-begotten Son, Jesus Christ, into our flesh and laid on Him our sin, giving Him into death that we might not die eternally. Because He is now risen from the dead and lives and reigns to all eternity, all who believe in Him will overcome sin and death and will rise again to new life. Therefore with angels and archangels and with all the company of heaven we laud and magnify Your glorious name, evermore praising You and saying:

Sanctus

C Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord God of Sab - a - oth a - dored; Heav'n and earth with full ac-claim shout the glo-ry of Your name.

Sing ho - san - na in the high-est, sing ho - san - na to the Lord;

Tru - ly blest is He who comes in the name of the Lord!

Prayer of Thanksgiving.....page 209

P Blessed are You, O Lord our God, king of all creation, for You have had mercy on us and given Your only-begotten Son that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have eternal life.

In Your righteous judgment You condemned the sin of Adam and Eve, who ate the forbidden fruit, and You justly barred them and all their children from the tree of life. Yet, in Your great mercy, You promised salvation by a second Adam, Your Son, Jesus Christ, our Lord, and made His cross a life-giving tree for all who trust in Him.

We give You thanks for the redemption You have prepared for us through Jesus Christ. Grant us Your Holy Spirit that we may faithfully eat and drink of the fruits of His cross and receive the blessings of forgiveness, life, and salvation that come to us in His body and blood.

Hear us as we pray in His name and as He has taught us:

Lord's Prayer

The Words of Our Lord

P Our Lord Jesus Christ, on the night when He was betrayed, took bread, and when He had given thanks, He broke it and gave it to the disciples and said: "Take, eat; this is My body, which is given for you. This do in remembrance of Me."

In the same way also He took the cup after supper, and when He had given thanks, He gave it to them, saying: "Drink of it, all of you; this cup is the new testament in My blood, which is shed for you for the forgiveness of sins. This do, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of Me.”

Pax Domini

P The peace of the Lord be with you always.

C Amen.

 Preserve it, for in ev'ry place

Sunday School and Christian Education

Sunday Proverbs Bible Study—Oh, to love wisdom and live wisely! How many times have you said and thought that? Join us for our Sunday Bible study—Living (& Loving) Wisdom—which explores the book of Proverbs through the lens of the Ten Commandments and Christ “the Wisdom of God” (I Cor. 1:24). There’s room for all of us to grow in wisdom through this study until the end of November. Pr. Joel is drawing from David Coe’s Provoking Proverbs—a recent CPH book. We start at 9:20 a.m. (in the conference room) ... following a combined devotional opening with the children and youth downstairs from 9:15 to 9:20.

Sunday School is at 9:15 a.m. on Sunday mornings downstairs for ages Preschool through 12th grade. We start out with a combined opening with the adults to kick off each Sunday. The children continue working on songs with the goal of singing in the church service once per month. We invite all children to come and be a part of this time growing together in Christ!

Let's join the LCMS Memory Verse Challenge! The Sunday School children will be challenged to learn these verses every week, and you can too! To help make this easy to do and remember, each Sunday I will post the weekly verse on the BLC Facebook page, provide a coloring page with the verse printed on it to take home (find this at the mailboxes), and post the verse in the Band app. Download this free app and join the group BLC Sunday School. I created a Group Challenge (Rehearse the weekly memory verse), for which you can check-in daily. I'll make a new challenge for each month. You can also visit lcms.org/worship/memory-verse-challenge to find the weekly verse.

Wednesday Bible Study will resume on November 8. We've started exploring the last book of the Old Testament—the book of the Hebrew prophet Malachi. Join us in the conference room from 10:30 'til noon to see how this is the perfect lead-in to the New Testament fulfillment in Christ Jesus.

Faith Night happens on the first Wednesday of every month with a simple shared potluck meal from 5:30 to 6:00 (or so), followed by a faith discussion until 6:45. Through the end of the year, we're focusing on Keeping Every Moment HOLY by reflecting on liturgies and prayers from this great new resource in book or app form (www.everymomentholy.com). Since November 1 is All Saints' Day, Rebecca will be leading and sharing attentive ways to pray through grief and give thanks for the lives of those no longer with us. Plan on coming for this beneficial time together!

Thursday Bible Study will resume on November 9 at 7:00 p.m. with Pastor Bertels' continued study on the book of Ezekial.

Music

Bethlehem musicians Gary Moege (Horn), Lorraine Miller (Flute), and Jerrode Marsh (Piano), will be presenting a benefit concert on St. Martin's Day, featuring some of the great German composers, including J. S. Bach, Felix Mendelssohn, Robert Schumann, and Johannes Brahms. The donations raised from this German program will go directly to support the Ukrainian refugee assistance work being done in Germany, particularly in the eastern region of Germany, near the town of Cottbus. Donations can be given to Bethlehem Lutheran, with designation in the memo line Ukrainian Refugee Assistance.

The concert will begin at 3 pm in the sanctuary and will last about 70 minutes. We will give some brief information about St. Martin and the Ukrainian aid so desperately needed in Germany. A reception will follow the concert. We invite you to join us as we share our God-given gifts to help inspire hearts to give to this ongoing need for Ukrainian refugees. For questions, please speak with me, Gary, Lorraine, or Pastor Joel. We look forward to sharing great music for an even greater cause!

Choir will meet on Wednesday at 6:30 for fellowship time and rehearse from 7:00-8:00p.m. We are always looking for new members. Please contact Peggy Forstad with any questions about joining the choir.

College Students

The Lutheran Student Center has an evening meal and Bible study on Thursdays at 5:00 p.m. at 215 S. Holden. You're welcome to attend and be a part of this time for growth and fellowship together! Also, there's an evening worship service there on the 2nd & 4th Wednesdays at 5:15 p.m. Check out our Facebook page for more information about how to plug in with this group!

Opportunities to Serve

Our next Family Fun Night is on November 3. Don't forget your military pictures so we can honor our Veterans. We will also be doing some painting. Rebecca will lead us with a fall-themed project. Don't worry if you are not artistic—she makes it real easy. Potluck sign-up sheet is on the board by the mailboxes.

It's Operation Christmas Child time! LauraBeth VanWey and Adeline Murrell, together with their American Heritage Girls troop, are collecting items to pack in boxes, completed boxes, and monetary donations toward shipping ($10/box) for Operation Christmas Child, a Samaritan's Purse mission to bring joy and the gospel to children around the world. Brochures about the project can be found at the front and back entrances, along with crates for collecting items. Items especially needed: Wal-Mart has 10-packs of shoe-box sized Sterlite containers perfect for packing boxes for $10.98; and inflatable soccer balls with pumps can be ordered from Amazon. You can visit samaritanspurse.org/what-we-do/operation-christmas-child for more information and guidelines, as well as printable labels you can purchase for the $10 shipping fee, which will allow you to track your box to its destination. We will collect donations for this project until November 5. Contact Rebecca at 660-441-1271 with any questions and to donate shipping funds (Cindy can also take $$ donations). Thank you!

Bulletin Board—A section of the bulletin board at the North entrance has been dedicated to our congregation members who are home-bound and in nursing homes. Please check it out to see how you can reach out to those who can no longer come to services regularly. Send a card or leave one in the pocket on the board to be delivered during a visit. If you have a picture of a loved one you can share, please send it to Rebecca to have it posted!

Ongoing thanks to those who generously give to the Bethlehem Emergency Fund, which enables Pr. Joel to assist members and certain people in the community who are in crisis situations. Much appreciation for your good support in shining the light of Christ! If you'd ever like to hear some of the stories of how these funds have been used, just ask Pr. Joel.
