Don't Forget to Reconcile!

Easter Sunday claims the last day of March this year with joy of the greatest celebration ... but all of the month beforehand is dedicated to the season of Lent! And, of course, the tone for all of Lent is set on Ash Wednesday; especially with the prayer of recognition that the Lord despises nothing that He has made and forgives the sins of all who are penitent—asking Him to “create in us new and contrite hearts, that lamenting our sins and acknowledging our wretchedness we may receive from You full pardon and forgiveness.” And that desire for deep change where needed most and the accompanying gift of forgiveness can’t help but take us back to this portion of the Ash Wednesday Epistle reading: We are ambassadors for Christ, God making His appeal through us. We implore you on behalf of Christ, be reconciled to God. For our sake He made Him to be sin who knew no sin, so that we might become the righteousness of God (2 Corinthians 5:20-21).

Reconcile means “to unite again, to bring back to harmony or peace once more”—implying that something was broken or divided and in need of restoration. We can’t but think back to the initial harmony that existed between the Lord and His Creation in the Garden of Eden, and how that perfect unity was shattered by our first parents’ going against His will ... but also how Jesus the Christ came a long time later to restore that unity through his perfect life of obedience and sacrificial serving and restoring love. Isn’t it something, though, that we Christians who so readily claim and treasure that gift of forgiveness from Jesus often aren’t ready or willing to live that reconciliation to those we still have broken or strained relationships with—or receive it from them, either?! But yet, we pray: “Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us.” It should not be so for those who’ve died and risen with Christ in baptismal life and faith, so that’s what Lent calls us back to— renewed Easter living!

On Ash Wednesday, we returned to the practice of “sharing the peace” following the Confession and Absolution of our sins as a sign testifying to our commitment to do just that. We did it again during our Saturday service, but I went right past it on Sunday morning— forgetting to look at the bulletin and carrying on instead according to routine. (I’ll try to do better in coming weeks!) At any rate, that’s how it can be for us when we forget that reconciliation is at the heart of Christianity; “lip service” is no good unless it keeps company with “life service.”

Dietrich Bonhoeffer wrote in his powerful book Life Together:

When God was merciful to us, we learned to be merciful with our brethren. When we received forgiveness instead of judgment, we, too, were made ready to forgive our brethren. What God did to us, we then owed to others. The more we received, the more we were able to give; and the more meager our brotherly love, the less we were living by God’s mercy and love.... The day of the Lord’s Supper is an occasion of joy for the Christian community. Reconciled in their hearts with God and the brethren, the congregation receives the gift of the body and blood of Jesus Christ, and receiving that, it receives forgiveness, new life, and salvation. It is given new fellowship with God and men. The fellowship of the Lord’s Supper is the superlative fulfillment of Christian fellowship.

So, here’s to remembering that we are reconciled—and to living that reconciliation in every way!

CHURCH COUNCIL

By: Jeremy VanWey

Greetings Brothers and Sisters in Christ!

Your Bethlehem Church Council recently had our first meeting of the year since we canceled in January due to the weather. We are excited to have several new faces on your BLC Council this year. Several members of BLC leadership recently attended the E2 conference in Lee's Summit. Ideas from this conference have already been discussed. We will also be reviewing many of these ideas and how they might help us in our mission at BLC during our upcoming Council Orientation and Retreat. We used to hold an annual council orientation, but since Covid it had not happened. We are excited to bring this back and help everyone be successful in their role within BLC. Something else that Council will be working on over the next several months is a review of our Constitution and Bylaws. 2017 was the last year that we reviewed them, the best we can tell. Being good stewards and leaders of BLC, it was discussed that it might be a good time to take a look and make sure it truly reflects the way we operate and will continue to serve us in the future. If you have thoughts or inputs on that review process, please communicate those to me.

You may have noticed lots of various activities happening around Bethlehem, especially work outside. Work on the main sanctuary entrance has begun with concrete poured. We are anxious for the new rails to be installed as well. Work has also begun with the Community Garden and Trail for the season. There will be lots of opportunities to help out with this as well as enjoy it throughout the growing season.

One final thought for your consideration this month. I have been helping to start a local group—Johnson County COAD (Community Organizations Active in Disaster). The COAD is a network of local churches, non-profits, and other organizations that provide services within Johnson County. I know in the past, a few members from Bethlehem have participated in the Lutheran Early Response Team training. I know many of you have additional skills and talents and that might be relevant to this type of service in our community. If you have interest in learning more about this group and potentially representing Bethlehem in this, please contact me. I would love to visit with you more about it. Pastor Joel has attended some of the meetings and I have been heavily involved since the beginning. One of the primary goals of the COAD is to be able to help provide services to our community in a safe and efficient manner and avoid duplication of efforts. The COAD could be providing food, temporary shelter, supply distribution, debris removal, child care, and a host of other areas that might be needed after a disaster. The group meets every other month so it isn't a huge time commitment but will be rewarding work and you will meet and work alongside some of the great people from around Johnson County. I would love to visit with you more about it!

Thank you to all of you for making Bethlehem who we are. The many and various events, activities, and services both within our "4 walls" and in our community are making a difference. I love seeing all of you live out our mission-Grow in Christ, Live in Love, Share the Faith.

In His service,
Jeremy VanWey
Bethlehem Council President

CONGREGATIONAL LIFE FACILITATOR

By: Rebecca Holland-VanWey

For what can be known about God is plain to them, because God has shown it to them. For his invisible attributes, namely, his eternal power and divine nature, invisible though they are, have been understood and seen through the things he has made. So they are without excuse... Romans 1: 19-20.

COMMUNITY GARDEN WORKDAYS MARCH 9TH & 23RD

This month I'd like to entice you to take part in our community garden, a jewel in need of polishing. As I feel compelled to take on the task of increasing community involvement in our garden, I keep coming back to the verse above, which came up in both of the Bible studies I took part in last year. Paul was making the point that God's power as Creator cannot be denied; from the beginning all humanity has understood God's role in creating the world that sustains us through its perfect design. For me, gardening is a way to connect to that beautiful design that directly feeds my body, and the bodies of my family members, with food and sunshine and air (and dirt, some of which has been directly consumed by toddlers).

Like many others, I have always been drawn to growing things for beauty, for flavor, and for nourishment, and I don't remember a time when there wasn't something growing in the yard or in a pot in the summer. Our back yard currently contains a large garden, along with milk goats and chickens, and we grow food that we eat all year. Growing our food is a way, for us, to teach our children about how to responsibly care for Creation, including both our own bodies and the earth we inhabit. And this responsibility includes learning to manage the miracle that is growing food from tiny seeds with care and patience, along with some frustration and prayer over the mystery that is dying cucumber vines 3 years in a row. (Where are my PICKLES?!?) I know from experience that gardening is very much about relating to God, and I consider Bethlehem's community garden a gem of a ministry that needs to be developed.

We will kick off the garden season with our Shine event on April 13. Please stay tuned for details about that as we plan. In the meantime, there is much to do to prepare our garden for the growing season. My vision for the garden this year is to bring various community partners together, from the Chamber of Commerce to 4H, to grow and learn and build relationships with each other with dirty hands and sweaty brows, followed by a nice salad made tastier by the shared joy in producing it. What is your vision for our garden?

Darlene Laubenstein, President

The Mary Martha Guild met in February and started with a Bible Study presented by Karon Harding. The group then had their regular meeting and a White Elephant gift exchange to end the meeting. There were 13 members present.

An updated copy of the bylaws was handed out to everyone that was present. If you were not there please see Darlene to get a new copy.

The March meeting will be held on the 11th at 7:00 p.m. Pr. Joel will have a program with the group about the altar and communion. Any ladies from the congregation are welcome to join.
