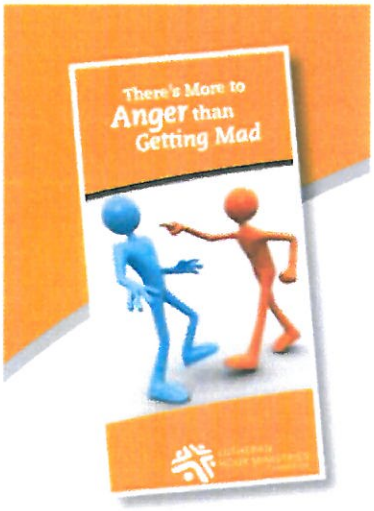
There's More to Anger than Getting Mad (6BE138)
(Also available as MP3 audio)



EMOTIONAL STRATEGIES
Poorly managed anger is the root of many serious physical, social and emotional problems, including poor health, chronic disease, depression, unhappy relationships, violence and crime. Some people are taught that it's wrong to get angry. Others are taught it's their right to get angry! The truth is that everyone gets angry. Anger is a natural feeling that shows your something is wrong an can stir your to action against that which hurts you or others. This booklet provides productive ways to express your anger, what to say, and how to say it.

We are not Unaware of His Schemes…

God has an agenda for you. It's an agenda of unstoppable grace, of compassion, and love, and restoration. But did you know that Satan also has an agenda for this planet – including you?

Jesus defined these two competing agendas in one verse when He said, "The thief," speaking of Satan, "comes only to steal and kill and destroy; I have come that they may have life, and have it to the full." (John 10:10) Jesus came so that we could have life. Whereas, Satan's agenda can be described in one word as well: death. Satan's goal is to kill, steal, and destroy anything that is positive, wholesome, and winsome.

His agenda is diabolical. It's not passive. It's not "kind of bad." It's extremely wicked and cruel, evil and vicious, demonic and deplorable. Satan deceives, lies, and brings temptations to us get us to sin – whether it's to treat someone poorly or to get a good thing in a bad way or at a bad time. He also gets us to do things that bring shame to our heart, make us depressed, and ruin our relationships. Discouragement and divisiveness are two of his favorite tools.

I think that most of the time when we think about Satan we either err on the side of thinking too much about him or thinking too little about him. But here's what we need to know: Satan is real. And all of us are in an invisible war with temporal and eternal consequences.

God's Word reminds us: "For our struggle is not against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the powers of this dark world and against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly realms." (Ephesians 6:12) We're in a battle for our soul, and our relationships. Our life is constantly being bombarded by agents of grace while at the same time being bombarded by agents of evil.

Most of the time, these agents of evil aren't the more obvious sinister things going on in the world such as the sexual abuse of children, murder, and genocide. Instead, I would say that probably 99 percent of the time, all of the demonic activity that we'll ever face will come packaged so sweetly, so subtly, and so deceptively that we'll be on a course toward destruction and we'll never know it.

Satan wants to divide and conquer. He wants to divide us with our friends and with our mates. He wants to divide us with our church, with our parents, with our kids, and with the people at our workplace. He also attacks us with lies, condemnation, and the feeling that we just don't measure up. In 2 Corinthians 2:10-11, the Apostle Paul reminds the church to forgive those who have wronged them and who were trying to cause division, "in order that Satan might not outwit us. For we are not unaware of his schemes."

Sadly, I don't think Paul could write that to most churches today, as I believe that most churches, and most people, are largely ignorant of the enemy's schemes. What we need to realize is that we have a formidable foe. The Bible describes him as "a roaring lion seeking whom he may devour." (1 Peter 5:8) Yet knowing this shouldn't make us intimidated. We can take comfort and strength in knowing that Satan is a defeated foe. We don't have to fight for victory because we're not trying figure out who is going to win this battle. We already know who wins – and it's Jesus! We fight from victory as we live in him.

That means a life of letting his Word renew and reshape our minds; it means faith put into action and a desire to be with our Lord and with His people. That's our goal as we meet, worship, pray and study God's Word together. Please join in!

"The Spirit who lives in you is greater than the spirit who lives in the world." (1 John 4:4)

SENIOR HIGH YOUTH

The Senior Youth meet each Sunday in room #5 on the second floor. This class is for grades 9-12.

SUNDAY CLASSES: Over the course of the year, we will be doing several bible study topics which will hopefully help the youth build a firm foundation for their faith. Our first study series is on who God is, according to the Bible. In other words, what are His true attributes—not what the world teaches, but what the bible tells us.

SERVICE PROJECT: On Thursday, October 4th and Friday, October 5th, the senior youth will be assisting with serving Thanksgiving dinners at two different Senior Residents. The proceeds from these dinners will go towards the BC Mission Trip.

YOUTH LOCK-IN: We will also be having an overnight lock-in on Saturday, October 13th. We will meet at the church at 5 pm—please bring snacks and any overnight things you might need. This is a great opportunity for us to plan for the coming year and have fun together.

Remember, friends are always welcome to any classes or activities that we do! If you have questions or concerns regarding youth events, please let me know.

God's Blessings,

Stewardship Moment

Why do we give? Is it simply because God commands us to? Or is there more to it? To be sure, the instruction and Word of God in the Bible says we should give, and this is sufficient to encourage us to give (Luke 6:38; Acts 20:35; 1 Cor. 16:2; 2 Cor. 8:7; Gal 6:6).

But there's more to it than just obligation. We're not just trying to fulfill a work of the Law. We are bearing fruits of the Spirit given to us by our Father in heaven through His Son our Lord Jesus Christ. In other words, we're not just doing what our Father said, we're also doing what He did.

Children emulate their parents. When they grow up they often carry many of the same mannerisms and characteristics as their parents, but there is more to it than that. Children copy their parents even on a more mundane level. They watch how their parents cross their legs, how they fold their hands, how they stand and sit and walk, how they do and say most everything.

And children try to copy it, which can be quite humorous when parents wish they wouldn't. It can be uncomfortable and embarrassing if a child copies or repeats something less than polite that they learned from a parent. Sitcoms thrive on these situations. It only happens because children emulate their parents because they want to be like them.

We are the children of God, by grace, through faith. In Holy Baptism, God the Father declares of us what He declared of Jesus at His Baptism in the Jordan: "You are my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased." God the Father claims us as His own. He takes away all our sins, and in exchange He gives us His righteousness, His purity, His holiness, and His Spirit, by which we cry out, "Abba, Father."

We are born again, born from above, born of water and the Spirit, to a new life in Christ as His children. We are sons of God in Christ, through Baptism. And since we are sons, we are heirs – heirs who share in the glory of the Son of God. The inheritance is ours because of the Father's grace and mercy, His generosity in sending His Son in time to save us for all eternity.

And this is why we give generously of our income to the work of the church. We want to be like our heavenly Father. We want to emulate His generosity by being generous ourselves. We give to the work of the Church because we have witnessed the generous giving of our Father in heaven.

More than that, we are recipients of it. It is because we have received God our Father's gifts that we desire to give ourselves. And His gifts are not just spiritual. They are temporal and earthly as well. As the Small Catechism teaches in the Fourth Petition of the Lord's Prayer:

"Give us this day our daily bread." What does this mean? God certainly gives daily bread to everyone without our prayers, even to all evil people, but we pray in this petition that God would lead us to realize this and to receive our daily bread with thanksgiving. What is meant by daily bread? Daily bread includes everything that has to do with the support and needs of the body, such as food, drink, clothing, shoes, house, home, land, animals, money, goods, a devout husband or wife, devout children, devout workers, devout and faithful rulers, good government, good weather, peace, health, self-control, good reputation, good friends, faithful neighbors, and the like."

In other words, God gives us everything we need for the care of both body and soul. His generosity knows no bounds. Therefore, we sit down at the beginning of the year, the beginning of the month, or the beginning of the week to set aside a generous portion of God's daily bread for His work in the Church.

We don't do this simply because He has commanded us so to do; it is because we, as His children by grace, want to emulate His generosity in our own lives. He is our Father; we are His children. And children want to be like their parents.

A Brave Journey in Canada

"For I was hungry and you gave me something to eat, I was thirsty and you gave me drink, I was a stranger and you welcomed me." (Matthew 25: 35)

With hearts filled with gratitude and faith we note that our sponsored family Ibrahim is making good progress adjusting to their new home in Canada. Three months in Calgary has seen the family settle into a busy routine. Both parents, Rabie and Faiza, and the children, Esam and Awadia, attend ESL classes daily. Their English is improving gradually; practically, they have mastered the "double-double" at Tim Horton's. They have conquered public transit and are able to complete grocery shopping, including an occasional mission to Costco. The father, Rabie, looks after all finances and banking; the family continues to be amazed at the expensive cost of living in general.

Circuit committee members have been focused on providing assistance navigating the bureaucracy of Service Canada. We have attended many medical and dental appointments for the family, while achieving a baseline of health issues through an Arabic speaking family doctor and dentist. The staff at the Centre for Newcomers have been extremely helpful in providing comprehensive support services. Esam and Awadia enjoy making use of the great facilities at the Village Square Leisure Centre. Indeed, the journey has been akin to "drinking from a fire hydrant" in terms of learning the range of Canadian norms and practices.

Moving forward, two reminders are offered for consideration. First, as advertised in the Church bulletin, all members of SMLC are invited to a Potluck Fellowship to meet our family on Sunday 16 September, 1:00 PM at Foothills Lutheran Church. This invitation has been extended to all congregants of the Calgary Circuit. Second, winter is soon to come! Since our family relies on public transportation, we would like to fully outfit them with warm coats and boots, as well as mitts, scarves and hats. The father and son are a men's large size, the daughter a large woman's size and the mother, a 2 or 3 XL size. The Project Committee is appealing for donations of these items, as well as gift cards for Walmart and Mark's. And, of course, if you'd like to make a monetary donation, please indicate Refugee Sponsorship on the envelope.

Our family is genuinely grateful for their chance at a new life! Unfortunately, this project has been swimming against a local surge of skepticism, even anger, toward refugees sponsored for resettlement in Canada. We need to embrace the teaching of Jesus in the scripture above. Moreover, the Old Testament is rife with examples of forced and voluntary resettlements. Recall that Mary and Joseph too were refugees as they fled the brutality of King Herod (Matthew 2: 13-14). And, Peter reminds us of a world full of refugees and exiles in need of help (1 Peter 2: 11). In His service, thank you for your generosity in helping to spread the love of God to our neighbours.
