

Happy Halloween!

Next Week's Scripture Readings:

Sunday: Psalm 117:1-2

Pray and give thanks for God's faithfulness.

Monday: Hebrews 11:32 - 12:2

Pray for the faith of our great cloud of witnesses and fix your eyes on Jesus.

Tuesday: Habakkuk 1:1-4, 2:1-4

Pray for the patience to wait for God's vision of hope.

Wednesday: Luke 19:1-10

Pray that your connection with Jesus makes a difference in your life.

Thursday: 2 Thessalonians 1:1-4

Pray that your love for God and others will increase.

Friday: Psalm 119:137-144

Pray that you are able to hear, understand, and follow God's word.

Saturday: 1 John 4:7-16

Pray that you will know and remain in God.

CLINTON

UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

A "God Moment," a "spiritual high," the "hand of God." Described in different ways, there are just times when the presence of God is very real... times when God is really close... times when heaven seems just a step away.

Those are good times! And often they come when we are around others; Sunday worship service, a campfire at church camp, or maybe a time of deep conversation and prayer with a close friend.

But there are other times when you're all alone; maybe literally, or feeling all alone. Facing a big decision only you can make, finding more bills than bank account at the end of the month, receiving a tough diagnosis at the doctor's office, or experiencing a painful loss... Literally or figuratively, being alone is hard. Being alone is scary. Being alone can really hurt.

"The Lord stood by me and gave me strength..." (2 Timothy 4:17, CEB). The words of the Bible echo across the centuries to us and give us hope. The risen Christ stands with us, in all circumstances. Listen to more at <https://www.mykdkd.com/united-methodist-church/> (October 27 service and sermon).

We're moving into one of my favorite times of year, the Thanksgiving season. And we're moving into a new sermon series called "Thanks For What?" Find out more about it elsewhere in the newsletter and join us for worship this Sunday morning at 8:15 or 10:30. See you then!

United Methodist Women
FAITH • HOPE • LOVE IN ACTION

UMW To Meet

Everyone is invited to the next United Methodist Women meeting in the Fellowship Hall on Friday, November 8th at 9 am. Brenda Elliott will speak about "Being a Police Officer in the '70's." Come find out what a trailblazer she was, and what conditions were like for her as a female officer. Our hostess will be Carolyn Walden. Refreshments will be served.

New Sermon Series

"Thank You..." two words that are easy enough to say, especially when things are going well in our lives. But what about when life gets challenging? In tough times, why does "thank you" often disappear in our interactions with others and with God? Does it have to be that way?

Join us in November for Sunday morning worship at 8:15 or 10:30 and for our sermon series called "Thanks For What?" We'll work through the New Testament book of 1 Thessalonians that encourages us to "Give thanks in all circumstances". Each week we'll explore something different to be thankful for, no matter what may be going on around us. And we'll discover some practical ways to be thankful, as we enter into this season of Thanksgiving.

Prayer Group Meets Weekly

We pray together every Wednesday at noon in the Board Room. We will meet for about 30 minutes and anyone who would like to join us would be welcome. We will continue to lift up the church membership and the many activities of the church. Please come and help us seek God for his plan for our church.
