Ten years ago, on the backside of a moving week, my wife Natalie and I had been unpacking boxes for the better part of two hot July days. We'd hoped to finish that day, but by mid-afternoon we were "toast!" We quit and went to grab a bite to eat.

Walking into a fried chicken place, we discovered the AC wasn't working. We were already hot, so we placed our order anyway with a polite young man behind the counter.

When he brought our order out, he apologized again for the lack of cool air and asked how our day was going. I made a quick comment about moving to town and unpacking boxes. "So, what brings you here?" he asked.

Famished and exhausted, I just wanted to eat and relax a bit. So, I was beginning to get a little annoyed. But I said that I was a new pastor in town, gave him my card, and quipped the usual, "If I can ever help you in any way, please let me know." He took the card and said. "I might just give you a call sometime." "Anytime," I said, but I'd heard that before, so I didn't think much more about it.

A few weeks later he did call. A chat over coffee started an ongoing conversation. I journeyed with him through his addiction rehab, getting back into school, connecting with our church, and re-connecting with God.

Sometimes, detours take us places we wouldn't choose to go (like a hot fast food restaurant), with people we wouldn't choose to be around (like a somewhat annoying fast food restaurant employee). But in life's detours, everyone you bump into can encounter, receive, and be changed by the gift of God's grace! Click here <https://www.mykdkd.com/united-methodist-church/> to listen to more (January 19 service and sermon).

I look forward to joining you for worship this Sunday morning at 8:15 or 10:30. Sometimes detours are more than meets the eye. See you Sunday!

Your partner on the journey,

Pastor Steve

Prayer Ministry Meeting

"God will do nothing but in answer to prayer"

John Wesley

Has God ever stirred your heart to know more about prayer, or to more faithfully practice prayer— individually or with others? We will be offering several opportunities this year to enrich our prayer lives.

- There will be Congregational Prayer Events at specific times.
- Partners in Prayer will be offered on a monthly basis. These groups meet once a month for about 90 minutes in learning and practicing prayer.
- A weekly prayer group will meet every Wednesday at noon for 30 minutes to pray for specific needs of the congregation.
- In addition, we plan to have prayer prompts in the Tower and bulletin to use in addition to the daily readings and prayer suggestions.

We will be having an organizational/informational meeting this Sunday, January 26th at 3:00 PM. If you have any interest in any of the above, we invite you to attend. Could it be that God is waiting to use the prayers of his people for his purposes? Is God calling you to do a new thing in this new year? Come and join us in seeking God and God's will for our congregation. Call Mary Jo Cable at 492-2566 for more information.
