

What's a Service like?

Worship services are traditional liturgical Divine Services. The Divine Service is God coming to us with His gifts of forgiveness, life, and salvation. The action is always from God to us. He speaks, and we listen. The rhythm of our worship is from God to us, and then from us back to God. His Word bestows what it says. Faith that is born from what is heard acknowledges the gifts received with eager thankfulness and praise. In the Divine Service, when we respond by saying back to God what He has said to us, we repeat what is most true and sure. At the same time we build one another up as we speak to one another in “psalms, and hymns, and spiritual songs.” (Colossians 3:16).

What is the liturgy?

The liturgy provides the form and shape of the worship service. The liturgy has been developed over centuries from every time and place. The text comes from the Bible directly or from the church's age-long treasury of prayers and poetry.

What is the music like?

Hymns from the Lutheran Service Book supported by the organ/piano and from time to time , other instruments. Hymns are doctrine put into a poetic form and then set to music. The hymnal is not the work of one person, one denomination, one culture, or one generation. Our hymns not only reflect the great Lutheran tradition, but they also come from ancient Hebrew, Greek, Latin, European, African, North American and African-American sources.
