

P: So even to old age and gray hairs, O God, do not forsake me,
C: until I proclaim your might to another generation, your power to all those to come.
ALL: Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit; as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever. Amen.
P: O God, be not far from me;
C: O my God, make haste to help me!

SERVICE OF THE SACRAMENT

EGLC Communion Statement

The Lord's Supper is celebrated here in the glad confidence that those who commune actually eat and drink the true Body and Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ in, with, and under the bread and the wine. Only those communicants who believe this and who repent of their sins receive forgiveness of sins, life, and salvation. Those who do not believe this or who do not repent of their sins will commune to their harm. Because Holy Communion is a confession of the specific teachings of the faith which is confessed in this congregation, those who are not in agreement with this understanding of the Lord's Supper, or who belong to a religious community that is not in Altar & Pulpit Fellowship with The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod, are requested to consult with the presiding minister before communion.

About the Fifth Sunday after the Epiphany
Theme: Sent forth to Speak the Word
– highlighting the Scriptures for the week –

Isaiah was terrified; his eyes had seen the King, the LORD of hosts, exalted on the praises of Israel. (Isaiah) Though high and lifted up, the LORD sent down His angel to cleanse the prophet's unclean lips to speak His Word. So it is that the church forever brings her praise through lips made clean by Jesus' blood. (1 Corinthians) She speaks in ordinary tongues; not in spirit only, but with mind, and heart, and soul. Thus the body of Christ is built up in the most holy faith. So it was that the Lord Jesus called fishermen to leave their boats and follow Him to speak His Word. The spectacular catch of fish foreshadowed the Word's mighty power to gather men into the Kingdom of God.

WEEKLY BIBLE READING SCHEDULE

Use the schedule below in your personal devotion. The first three readings are the lessons read today; the last three will be read next Sunday. The Wednesday reading is the psalmody for the week. Each day you may want to pray that Psalm or the prayer printed in our service folder today, followed by the suggested reading and your personal requests and Thanksgivings to our Heavenly Father.

Sunday	Isaiah 6:1-8 What did Isaiah see in the temple the year that King Uzziah died? What was the song of the angels? When and how does the church's liturgy echo that song? What was Isaiah's reaction to this vision? Why? In what dramatic way did the LORD purge away Isaiah's sin? By what means does He purge away our sin? What call did the LORD have for Isaiah? For us? What does this mean?
Monday	1 Corinthians 14:12b-20 Which are the gifts of the Holy Spirit that build up His church? When and how does the church pray and sing with both mind and spirit? How do you praise God in your worship? How do you build up your fellow Christians in worship? How can this Biblical insight lend vitality to your time "in church?" What is a childish attitude toward worship? What is a mature attitude toward worship? How is this done?
Tuesday	Luke 5:1-11 What was Jesus doing at the Lake? How does the church continue her Lord's work of preaching and teaching? What was unusual about Jesus' fishing instructions? Why was Peter astounded at the results of this fishing expedition? How did Peter respond to the Holiness of Jesus? How did Jesus absolve Peter? How does He absolve us? Why did the disciples beach their boats? What commission did Jesus give them? How is this done among us? What does this mean?
Wednesday	Psalms 136 How do we know that the LORD is good? How did He show His goodness in creation? How did He show His goodness when He rescued Israel from bondage in Egypt? How did He show His goodness when He led Israel through the wilderness? How did He show His goodness when He gave them a new homeland? How has the LORD rescued His church by His Son? How does He lead His church? Toward what homeland? What alone endures forever? What therefore is our response? How is this done?
Thursday	Jeremiah 17:5-8 What is the curse of all those who place their trust in man? Why do they live in spiritual desert? What is the blessing for those who trust in the LORD? What is the source of their spiritual nourishment in difficult times? How can you still bear spiritual fruit despite (spiritual) drought conditions? What does this mean?
Friday	1 Corinthians 15:12, 16-20 What are the sobering implications of denying the resurrection of the dead? Why is our Christian hope much broader than for this life only? How and why may we be certain of the resurrection from the dead? What does this mean for the struggles you face right now?
Saturday	Luke 6:17-26 What physical healing was Jesus providing in His preaching? What spiritual healing? What blessing does He give to the spiritually poor? The hungry? The mourners? The oppressed? Why is persecution a sign of God's abundant blessing? What curse does Jesus pronounce on the self-fulfilled? Why is flattery and popularity a danger signal for teachers in the church? What does this mean?

Ms. Heather Corn, Principal

A warm welcome to our guests! Regardless of whether being in church is new to you or just being at Elm Grove Lutheran is new to you, you enter not as a stranger but as a guest of God. This is His house, and He is your heavenly Father. He created you and sent His Son to live, die, and rise again for you. Therefore, come into His presence expecting to hear words of free and full forgiveness. Come, knowing that you are more than conquerors through Him who loved you. And, please come again. If you have no church home and are looking for one, please speak with one of the pastors. They are eager to help.

The Fifth Sunday after the Epiphany Sunday, February 10, 2019 – 10:45 a.m.

Preparatory Prayer: O God, You have prepared for those who love You such good things that surpass all understanding. Pour into our hearts such love toward You that we, loving You above all things, may obtain Your promises, which exceed all that we can desire; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord. Amen. SERVICE OF THE WORD

Introit

(Antiphon Psalm 71:12) Psalm 71:15-18

P: O God, be not far from me;

C: O my God, make haste to help me!

P: My mouth will tell of your righteous acts, of your deeds of salvation all the day,

C: for their number is past my knowledge.

P: With the mighty deeds of the Lord GOD I will come;

C: I will remind them of your righteousness, yours alone.

P: O God, from my youth you have taught me,

C: and I still proclaim your wondrous deeds.
