Vacation Bible School, 2016

It takes many hands to do God's work and we certainly had that this summer at Barnyard Roundup! We had about 30 volunteers for 47 children! Thank you, parents, for making VBS a part of your child's summer. Thank you to our invaluable volunteers for making the effort and taking the time out of your summer to come serve your LORD and His little lambs. Finally, thank you to all of you church members, VBS parents, and children for donating the funds for snacks, supplies, and to our VBS mission offering, "Tin Roofs for Africa." We raised $240.86 together to help build tin roofs for the churches in Africa! However, it doesn't end there...Elm Grove Lutheran School has decided to keep the collection coming for our 1st semester offering designation for the 2016-2017 school year! We would love for you to help us try to reach our goal of $2,000 which will purchase enough supplies to build ONE WHOLE ROOF! If you are interested in helping us meet our goal, you can pick up one of the envelopes from our tin roof display down in the church lobby near the blue doors, fill the envelope with your donation, and drop it off in the red mailbox or send it to the church office. From the Pastor

"Land of the Free?"

The month of July is traditionally filled with patriotic themes and activities. We celebrate the United States of America as the "Land of the Free."

This year, however, we have to ask this question: "Is the U.S.A. any longer the 'Land of the Free?'"

The question pertains primarily to the "free exercise" of religion, as guaranteed by the First Amendment in the Bill of Rights. The question is raised because it has become apparent that religion, especially conservative Christianity, is under attack in our beloved country.

Some 14 months ago a major presidential candidate proclaimed the following: "And deep-seated cultural codes, religious beliefs and structural biases have to be changed." [Hillary Clinton, Sixth Annual Women in the World Summit, Washington, D.C., April 23, 2015]

Thus we are witnessing more and more assaults by both federal and state governments to force their understanding of religious values down the throats of others rather than ensuring the "free exercise" of religion by all. There is an entire litany of such assaults, but they include the following:

- Attempts to force faith-based organizations to pay for abortifacients (as supposed "health care") and act against both conscience and religious beliefs.
- Attempts to force faith-based organizations both to accept and support human sexuality conclusions that are contrary to deeply-held religious beliefs [e.g., same-sex marriage, homosexuality, & use of scouting organizations to push the agenda].
- Attempts to confine religious expression by military chaplains to public worship services in a chapel but restrict such expression in other venues.
- Attempts by states to force compliance by religious educational institutions by withholding federal and state funding until compliance is met [see, for example, the attack against higher religious education in California Senate Bill 1146].

These are real and consistent threats to the "free exercise" of religion in the U.S.A., and the attacks will become increasingly more severe and more frequent. They will not go away.

What is particularly disappointing, and even frightening, to your pastors is the rapidity and depth to which even Elm Grove Lutheran members have been influenced by these cultural and political assaults. Attitudes vary from "we just have to accept it (nothing I can do about it)" to "as long as it doesn't directly affect us here in this place." Neither extreme is either helpful or protective of the freedom guaranteed to us in the U.S. Constitution.

So, what can be done?

First of all, begin to pray to Almighty God that this great country of ours, the supposed "land of the free," will not go down in dust like so many other countries and empires throughout human history.

Secondly, find your voice!

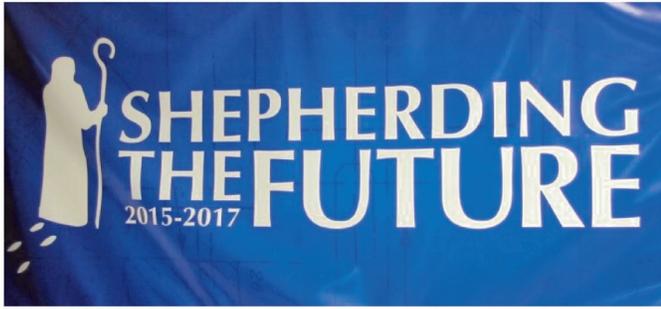

- Instead of merely accepting what you think to be reality, and instead of thinking that you can isolate our congregation from the culture wars surrounding it, go on the offensive! Don't be afraid to voice your opinions, both publicly and privately.
- Know that your vote in political elections is crucial. Elections do matter! Do NOT vote for candidates who do not hold your religious beliefs or whose agendas run contrary to the "free exercise" of religion.
- Regularly, and persuasively, contact your elected representatives at both the state and federal levels. Whether you believe it or not, they do pay attention to citizens when a sufficient number of citizens speak up and insist on being heard.

Finally, be responsible members of the congregation, supporting and undergirding your religious leaders so that all of us can continue to proclaim the Gospel of Jesus Christ, not just in the confines of our church & school buildings but in the public arenas as well.

Happy Independence Day!

A Spanferkel [pig roast] and potluck were held in their honor. Thank you to all who attended and participated in the festivities.

Stewardship Principle

Seeing the Light

In our Lord's parable of the vineyard workers, the vineyard owner says to those who worked the longest, "Or do you begrudge my generosity" (Matthew 20:15)? It's an unfortunate translation. It's not wrong, but it doesn't give us the full picture. What the vineyard owner actually says is this: "Or is your eye evil because I am good?" Earlier in Matthew's Gospel, Jesus said, "The eye is the lamp of the body. So, if your eye is healthy, your whole body will be full of light, but if your eye is bad, your whole body will be full of darkness. If then the light in you is darkness, how great is the darkness" (Matthew 6:21–23).

This statement comes right in the middle of our Lord's teaching about giving. He said, "Do not lay up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust destroy and where thieves break in and steal, but lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust destroys and where thieves do not break in and steal. For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.

The eye is the lamp of the body. So, if your eye is healthy, your whole body will be full of light, but if your eye is bad, your whole body will be full of darkness. If then the light in you is darkness, how great is the darkness! No one can serve two masters, for either he will hate the one and love the other, or he will be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and money" (Matthew 6:19–24).

Having an evil eye does not let in the light. Having an evil eye means that we are so focused on what we don't have, that we are unable to rejoice in what God has given. An evil eye makes us distressed when we see others prosper. It makes us rejoice when others suffer. An evil eye makes us so love ourselves and our money that we don't want to share with others; we don't want to give of what we have because we are so focused on keeping what we have and getting what we don't.

Whereas a good eye is an eye that lets the light in so that our lives are filled with it. This light shines upon all that we have and reveals that it comes from our Father's divine goodness and mercy. A good eye that lets in the light, unencumbered by the darkness, so that we have a good will, a benevolent disposition, and a genuine happiness to see others prosper and the desire to be part of it.

Jesus came to give you a good eye and to take away the darkness that fills your life. Christ our Lord, through His death and resurrection, has forgiven your sin, removed your evil eye and given you a new eye that lets in His light and truth. "For you know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he was rich, yet for your sake he became poor, so that you by his poverty might become rich" (2 Corinthians 8:9).

The reality is that you have all that you need and more. You have the love of God in Christ Jesus. You have the forgiveness of sins and life everlasting. You have house and home, all that you need for this body and life. So, lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where moth and rust do not destroy. And you will see that your hearts will follow, just as Jesus promised.

Women in Mission

The evening group of LWML will meet on Monday, July 11, 2016 at 7:00 p.m. in the Friendship Library. The activity for this meeting will be assembling the ingredients for "Friendship Tea" into individual plastic zip bags. Also on the agenda will be reports of the SWD LWML Convention. It will be quite interesting to find out what Mission Grants were selected by the voting delegates and knowing who the new officers are for the 2016-2018 Biennium. Please plan to attend.

It is interesting to note that the National Mission Grants are for worthwhile mission projects in the United States of America and also in foreign mission fields. National Mission Grant #4 is for $120,000 for "Renovation of Seminary Buildings in Nigeria."

The buildings of the Jonathan Ekong Memorial Seminary in Nigeria were built in the 1940s and are in much need of repair. Plans for resurfacing the floors and walls; replacing roofs and ceilings; replacing all electrical and plumbing installations; treating the termite problem; and painting of the buildings is what is in store for the seminary.

This will make a big difference for students and professors. This is how the mites that are donated throughout the various districts of the LCMS are being used in the mission field. To God be the glory! The Lutheran Church in Nigeria is the oldest partner church in Africa of the Lutheran Church – Missouri Synod. We can also give thanks to God for the increase of students at this seminary. These are the future pastors of The Lutheran Church in Nigeria.

Our LWML appreciates all of the mite contributions of congregation members. When you fill your mite box, please put it in the big LWML Mite Box near the LWML bulletin board or drop it off at the church office. Thank you very much.

"Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age."
Matthew 28:19-20

Keep those cans coming!

The PreK program is using the funds from aluminum can recycling to assist with classroom expenses (books, supplies, and manipulatives) not covered under the school budget.

Thanks to the hard work of Dennis Braun, Jim Olson, and Jim Huebschen, we now have a wire mesh top to the aluminum can enclosure to ensure the stored cans are secure.

Please put your cans in the smaller drop-off container next to the dumpster enclosure. No need to rinse or double bag...we'll take care of everything!

Thank you for your continued support of EGLS...any questions, please contact PreK teacher Mrs. Margrett at dmargrett@egl.org or 262-641-0806.

With thanksgiving to God!

WORK UPDATE

May and June were two exciting months for the team in Mexico City, true mile stones after months of foundational work. Pastor Schlund, theological educator and temporary Pastor of El Buen Pastor (until one is trained and called to replace him) had finally arrived to an overjoyed congregation. Pastor Conrad arrived with his family- Kathryn his wife and their daughter Anita. And I had the great pleasure of celebrating with four of my catechism students their graduation in the span of two weeks- Eric, Anita, Marta and Daniel. To God be the glory.

Other great news, after months of intense two to three hour practices my guitar students in El Buen Pastor went from not being able to play a chord to being able to lead their first Church service. Just in time to replace Buen Pastor's organist who moved to the other side of the country. On other news, with Pastor Conrad's daughter Ana's arrival in San Pedro, we finally have a faithful group to start youth activities in San Pedro (the magic number of three, we have to start somewhere).

Ana contemplating a difficult question on her confirmation exam

I was also able to start Tuesday morning Bible studies in San Pedro, beginning with Law and Gospel moving forward with the Book of Galatians. We have a small group of 6 people that are faithfully meeting, two of whom are new to the Church. Next week's homework assignment, invite a friend.

Mexico Mission team together at last!

Our Life Together. Giving to others what God gives us.

The word stewardship is often associated with monetary gifts, but our EGL brothers and sisters in Christ, some who have been profiled in Seasons' Faces of Stewardship, are proof that it means more than that to those within our church. As the free and joyous activity of the baptized, stewardship involves managing the gifts God gives us: time, talents and treasure.

Stewardship is indeed something over which the individual steward and congregation can and should celebrate. Why? Because stewardship is not about what we do, about what we decide to give or even how we decide to give.

Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of lights...

As the LCMS defines it, Christian stewardship is the free and joyous activity of God's family — the church — in managing life's resources for His purposes. This stewardship is free and joyous because everything we have been created to steward comes to us from God. St. James writes: "Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of lights with whom there is no variation or shadow due to change. Of his own will he brought us forth by the word of truth, that we should be a kind of first fruits of his creatures" (JAMES 1:17-18). Our Lord does not burden with gifts. In fact, Luther's explanation to the First Article of the Creed reminds us that our Father in heaven gives these gifts "only out of fatherly, divine goodness and mercy without any merit or worthiness in me." The Lord sets the crown of His creation in a position to manage those gifts in a way that is pleasing to Him and joyful for us! When stewardship is seen this way, how can one NOT celebrate stewardship?

Celebration Begins With Repentance

Because of human being's desire to claim ownership rather than gratefully receive gifts, we have lost our ability to celebrate stewardship. So there is only one true solution. Our move from dreading stewardship to celebration of stewardship begins with repentance. But even this is a gift from God! This is how the Holy Spirit becomes the key player in our celebration of stewardship. He is the One who calls us by the Gospel. Stewardship, and the celebration thereof, can never start with us! It starts with the work of the Lord through the Word convicting us of sin and leading us back to what Jesus has already accomplished for us on the cross. With cross-won forgiveness of sins, fallen stewards are fully restored to the role for which they were created. As St. Paul reminds us, "Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation. The old has passed away; behold, the new has come" (2 COR. 5:17). We are forgiven of our ownership and restored by grace to stewardship.

Christian stewardship is the free and joyous activity of God's family — the church — in managing life's resources for His purposes.

As forgiven and restored stewards, we are then freed from the fear of losing. We know that we ourselves are not lost. We also know that the loss that we experience in this world, while it can be stinging and uncomfortable, is only temporary. We know that a day is coming when all of what we see will be fully restored to its Eden-like glory in the resurrection! So if it is known, by grace through faith in Jesus Christ, how this whole journey will end why would anyone want to willingly crucify their joy and celebration? Redeemed and restored, the only faithful response can be celebration!

FROM THE PRINCIPAL: Matthew 5:16 says, "Let your light shine before men, that they may see your good deeds and praise your Father in heaven." The spirit of God goes to work on sinful man. Through the Law, He works sorrow over sin, and through the Gospel He works faith in Christ. When Christ comes into our hearts by His Spirit, we are brought to shine for Christ in the dark places of this world. We are to be very careful not to obscure the light by giving in to sin. When we give in to sinful habits our light is dimmed more and more. Before long others cannot see that we belong to Christ. Christ puts His Christians in the dark places of the world to shine for Him and light the way for others. Live for Him a life that is true, and speak of Christ to others.

We are currently gearing up for the 2016 - 17 school year. If you know someone who is interested in a quality Christian education, please speak with me. I would be glad to visit with anyone to share the benefits of Lutheran education and the educational ministry we provide at Elm Grove Lutheran. As I reflect upon the ministry that we have here at EGL, I thank you for your continued prayers, words of encouragement, and the financial commitment that you, the congregation, provide year after year. I am proud of the strong academic program and spiritual development that we offer. Members of our faculty and staff go above and beyond their "call of duty" for the benefit of our students and their families.
