

PHOTO RELEASE CONSENT
2016/2017 School Year

We sometimes take photos during the EGL school day or at school special events. Those photos are occasionally used in brochures, school publications, or on our website. By law, minors must have parental consent before their photos can be used. That law applies also to artwork, written work or the student's recorded voice.

If you are willing to allow us to use your child's photo (or work or voice) in school materials or on our website, please sign this form and return it to the school office. We will not identify your child except by first name in any publication or on the website. Information such as the child's last name, address, phone number or e-mail address is never included. Photos may be reused in future years.

If there is ever a photo you do not want used, we will honor that request. You may revoke this permission at any time by notifying the school office. This agreement does not include the school yearbook. We do not pay for use of photos.

We do not have control over photos that might be taken by a newspaper reporter covering a school event. In that case, the newspaper will contact you for permission to use your child's photo.

I hereby give permission for my child (children's) photos, written work, artwork or recorded voice to be used by Elm Grove Lutheran School for public relations purposes. I understand that his or her name and other identifying information will not be used.
