A NOTE FROM PASTOR DAVID MCCARTY

Dear Friends in Christ,

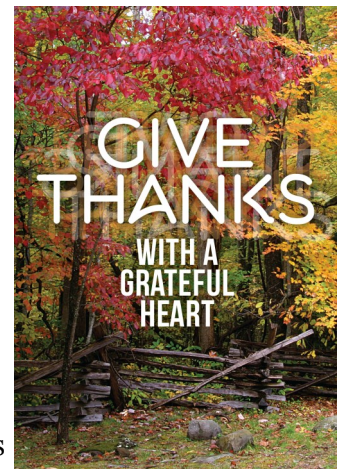

It is definitely a chilly start to the day (27°) as I write this newsletter article for November. Even though it is quite nippy outside, I can still see a beautiful blue Michigan sky spreading out in the heavens, as I peer out of my office window. With such a magnificent view before my eyes I cannot but thank Almighty God for all he provides for you and me as his creation.

Speaking in general terms, when we think of the month of November we often think of the Thanksgiving holiday. This holiday brings memories of family gatherings, huge meals that cover our dining room tables with turkey and all the fixins, football games, hunting expeditions, and the possibility of being able to experience our first snowfall of the season. Such pleasant memories, of years gone by, have a way of lingering in our minds as we approach another celebration of Thanksgiving. What a blessing these fond memories are for us to reflect back on.

As your Pastor and fellow brother in Christ, I hope that as we enter November and approach the onset of Thanksgiving, you and I can take time to intentionally focus on all the blessings our Lord has so richly poured out on each one of us. We are especially blessed because we are members of God's family, His beloved. He has chosen you and me, and through the water and words of Holy Baptism has adopted us to be His very own children.

And because our Heavenly Father dearly loves us, He made a way for you and me to be able to experience heavenly glory with Him, Jesus, and His Holy Spirit for all eternity. How thankful, how utterly grateful, we should be that our gracious and merciful Father sent His one and only Son Jesus into this world, to sacrifice His body and shed His blood, so that we might enjoy abundant life now and everlasting life later.

How can you or I ever be able to offer enough thanks to our great God for such an unbelievable gift? We can start by being in worship service each Sunday. As people of God, who gather together in His holy house, we can offer up ourselves as living sacrifices through our acts of confessing, praying, praising, and singing. In Psalm 141:2 King David called out to God, "Let my prayer be counted as incense before you, and the lifting up of my hands as an evening sacrifice." We can do it by our reading and studying of God's Holy Word on a daily basis. Paul tells us in Acts 17:11, "Now these Jews (Bereans) were more noble than those in Thessalonica; they received the word with all eagerness, examining the Scriptures daily to see if these things were true." We can do it by being faithful Disciples of Christ, who willingly and boldly share the Gospel message of salvation (continue on next page) with those the Lord places in our path. May we hear and grasp Paul's words in Ephesians 6:18-19, "To the end keep alert with all perseverance, making supplication for all the saints, and also for me, that words may be given to me in opening my mouth boldly to proclaim the mystery of the Gospel, for which I am an ambassador in chains, that I may declare it boldly, as I ought to speak." And, we can do it by being Jesus' hands and feet in this world, as we reach out in love to help our neighbors who are in need. We here in Paul's letter to the Galatians 5:13, "For you were called to freedom, brothers. Only do not use your freedom as an opportunity for the flesh, but through love serve one another. For the whole law is fulfilled in one calling, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself."

Service (10:30am)

As we look forward to November and the celebration of Thanksgiving, may you and I, as God's loved and saved people, be among those who live out the words of Hymn #806, "Give thanks with a grateful heart, Give thanks to the Holy One, Give thanks because He's given Jesus Christ His Son. And now let the weak say I am strong, let the poor say I am rich because of what the Lord has done for us. Give thanks, give thanks. Have a wonderful November and a thankful and blessed Thanksgiving celebration.

Elder's Letter

November Blessings from the Board of Elders!

The Board of Elder met on October 3rd, 2018

Attending: Michael Korunka, Don Schroeder, Harry Jones, Ed Tritt and Pastor Dave
Our next schedule Elder meeting for November 7th.

The Board of Elders has given Pastor Dave his annual review and believes he's doing an overall great job as our pastor here at Emmanuel. We did give him an increase in pay starting January 1st. Details will be given at our November 4th Voters Meeting.

The board has made small changes and has shortened our Holy Communion Statement a little. Our updated Holy Communion statement below is now printed prior to Holy Communion in our bulletin. Our visitor card will also be updated as well.

Emmanuel Lutheran Church celebrates the Lord's Supper by coming into union with Christ and one another. We believe that the very Body and Blood of Jesus is given with the bread and wine during Holy Communion, for the forgiveness of sin's and to strengthen our faith. Our Lord invites all who trust His Words, repent of their sins, and set aside any refusal to forgive and love as Christ loves us. Because those who commune unworthily do so to their great harm (1 Cor. 11:27-29), and because Holy Communion is a confession of our faith, anyone not properly instructed, in doubt, or hold a confession differing from our Lutheran Church Missouri Synod, are asked to speak with the Pastor prior or at the end of service. We invite all other attendees to come forward and receive a blessing at the altar by crossing your arms over your chests or use this time to pray and join us in singing the hymns of faith. White dealcoholized wine is available for those who are unable to consume regular wine. Gluten free wafers are available upon request.

We need your help! Calling all men and women of Emmanuel; if you have a calling to serve on Sundays as an Elder Assistant or Usher and wish to be added to our monthly "Those Who Serve" list, please contact your Elder or myself. The board is currently working on our 2019 "Those Who Serve" schedule. I plan to once again cycle our current Elder Assistant, Ushers and Acolyte list throughout the 2019 year. Reminder emails or calls from Teresa will go out at the end of every month. Please keep in mind, if for whatever reason you are unable to make your scheduled Sunday, please contact the church office or myself. Training will be provided for anyone who is new or just needs a refresher. Your help would be highly appreciated.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact your Elder or myself.

FAMILY LIFE MINISTRY

I would like to invite you to a new Bible study that we will be starting on November 7 during our regular Wednesday morning Bible Study. It is called "Growing Up in God", written by Vikki Kestell. I will be leading this particular Bible study, but I will be submitting each lesson to Pastor before presenting it to you. It is important for you to know that it is not my intent to bypass Pastor McCarty in any way, I have submitted this Bible study to his authority and he has agreed to let me lead this Bible study.

Growing Up in God is a six-part study on Christian spiritual maturity. The study is intended to promote spiritual maturity and address issues that may be impeding personal growth. The six parts are each presented as a chapter and each chapter may have several lessons. We will take one lesson each week; therefore it won't necessarily be a six week Bible study. I have personally gone through the first few chapters of "Growing Up in God" and can truthfully say that I believe it is time very well spent. If you are anything like me you long to be a spiritually mature Christian, and know that no matter what my physical age may be, my spiritual maturity is no where near where I want it to be.

God, as the ultimate parent, our Father, wants us to grow into maturity even more than we do! I have heard the argument, "Well, God loves me the way I am." To which I reply, "Well, of course He does, but He doesn't want to leave you that way!" What parent doesn't want to see their five year old grow into maturity and take on the joys that come with being an adult? God is not different in that respect. Hebrews 5:12-14, amplified version, says, "For though by this time you ought to be teachers [because of the time you have had to learn these truths], you actually need someone to teach you again the elementary principles of God's Word [from the beginning], and you have come to be continually in need of milk, not solid food! Anyone who lives on milk, being still an infant, is not acquainted with the teaching about righteousness. But solid food is for the mature, who by constant use have trained themselves to distinguish good from evil." That's where I want to be, how 'bout you?

Chapter 1: Making Progress in My Walk with God

Chapter 2: How the Bible Defines Spiritual Maturity

Chapter 3: Godly Emotional Maturity

Chapter 4: Led by the Spirit

Chapter 5: By a New and Living Way

Chapter 6: How to Belong to a Church and Love It

I am so excited about this study. Please join us as we seek a deeper walk with Jesus. "Though you have not seen Him, you love Him, and even though you do not see Him now, you believe in Him and are filled with an inexpressible and glorious joy." [1 Peter 1:8] Such beautiful koinonia (deep Christian fellowship) we will have as we share our inexpressible and glorious joy with each other as we grow up in God. I truly want you to come, even if you've never come to our Wednesday morning Bible study before, or if you already come to a Bible study, like the men's Bible study on Saturdays. "For I long to see you so that you and I may be mutually encouraged by each other's faith." [Romans 1:11,12].

FAMILY LIFE MINISTRY

Bible Study: Living Intentionally A Free Resource by Leigh Ann Dutton, IntentionallyByGrace.com

INTRODUCTION:

I have a real zeal for the Word of God. I recently found a quote from Martin Luther that really spoke to my heart. He said, "The Bible is alive. It speaks to me; It has feet, it runs after me; It has hands, it lays hold of me." For this reason, I asked Pastor if I could include a Bible study in the newsletter so that those of you who wanted to could take advantage of it. It's really pretty simple, you look up each scripture passage and read it carefully and thoughtfully, then answer the three questions at the end of each section. There is a prayer that follows the questions for each day, which I hope you will pray with your whole heart. It is my sincere belief that "knowledge" of the Word of God is not enough to reach that soul satisfying depth of relationship with God that, if we have any degree of spiritual integrity, we all want.

We all have knowledge of Abraham Lincoln, but none of us actually KNEW him. It's the same with God's Word. We can have boatloads of knowledge about God's Word without actually "knowing" it. "Experience is the best teacher," is an old adage that I'm sure we're all familiar with. This is especially true of the Bible. We can actually experience the Word of God, having it reach into the depths of us and touching us in a way that is life changing. We can agree wholeheartedly with Martin Luther. The Bible can be alive to us. It can speak to us. It does have feet and can run after us, it can have hands and lay hold of us. It is God's primary way of speaking to us, His people.

All the while I was growing up here at Emmanuel I heard one prayer repeated over and over again in the liturgy. "Blessed Lord, who caused all holy Scriptures to be written for our learning: Grant us so to hear them, read, mark, learn, and inwardly digest them, that we may embrace and ever hold fast the blessed hope of everlasting life, which You have given us in our Savior Jesus Christ; who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen." So often I find that I read, I even mark up my Bible, I learn the scripture, could recite it by heart if you ask me, but where I come up short is in the inwardly digesting part. What do you think it means when we pray to inwardly digest God's Word?

When I taught at St. John's in Waltz, Michigan, I was good friends with one of the other teachers there. Quite often he and his wife would ask me to have dinner with them. They had a big old farmhouse style table in their kitchen. It had a drawer in it along the side, tucked under the top. My friend would often tell me that when she went to clean the table she would open this drawer and find all kinds of food tucked in it that their son hadn't wanted to eat. When I wrote the words from the liturgy above I was reminded of this drawer. Jr. had definitely seen the food, he recognized what it was, so we can say that he knew the food, he had learned about it enough to know that he didn't like it. But if it ended up in the drawer of the table, did he inwardly digest it? Obviously not, therefore any nutritional value that the food had was wasted. It certainly didn't bring any growth to the drawer in the table!

We can rush through our Bible study time, obediently reading the Word, we can mark it and learn it, but unless we are intentional, we will not inwardly digest it. The whole point of eating is to nourish our bodies. If we don't inwardly digest what we eat then we will suffer from malnutrition. Malnutrition has so many negative effects on our bodies. This is equally true with spiritual nutrition. If we do not inwardly digest our spiritual food there is only one outcome...spiritual malnutrition.

I'm going to end the introduction to this Bible study with some verses from the book of James. "But be doers of the Word, and not hearers only, deceiving yourselves. For if anyone is a hearer of the Word and not a doer, he is like a man observing his natural face in a mirror; for he observes himself, goes away, and immediately forgets what kind of man he was. But he who looks into the perfect law of liberty and continues in it, and is not a forgetful hearer but a doer of the Word, this one will be blessed in what he does."

Note what scripture says we are doing if we are merely hearers of the Word. It says we are _____ ourselves!

What is the promise that we are given if we are not merely hearers of the Word, but actual doers of it? _____

Would you like this promise to be true of you? _____ I left a short line for your answer because, really, this seems like a no brainer. The End

You may find it helpful to keep a notebook at hand to record your answers in. Because this is the newsletter, we are trying to be good stewards of paper so I won't be adding lines during the actual Bible study for you to record your answers, but please don't let that stop you from completing the answers! Each day you will read the scripture verse and then answer these same 3 questions for each one.

- How can I summarize this passage in 2 or 3 sentences?
- What does this passage teach me about living intentionally?
- What is the Lord specifically leading me to do in response to this passage?

Then after finishing the lesson for each day, pray and ask the Holy Spirit to help you walk in obedience to this passage. You may want to record anything that you feel He is saying to you in response to your prayer in your notebook.

I hope you are able to work through this Bible study each day and that it feeds you spiritually. In Isaiah 55:11 God says, "My Word which goes forth from My mouth; it will not return to Me void, without accomplishing what I desire, and without succeeding in the matter for which I sent it." I would encourage you to expect to see and feel God working in you as you faithfully feed on His Word. Remember, He says His Word will accomplish what He desires, and we can be sure that just as any good parent, God, our Father, desires to see His children growing up in Him. Welcome to the feast!

LWML Mission of the Month – November, 2018

Your Mite Box located in the rear of our Sanctuary collects your loose change to support many Missions, some close to home and others around the world. This month we would like to share with you:

“Sharing Jesus with People with Disabilities” - this mission grant will provide funding for faith-filled services for brothers and sisters in Christ with intellectual disabilities. There are many barriers for these special people to becoming full members of the body of Christ. Bethesda works to break down those barriers so that they can become part of their church body, while ministry consultants work to ensure these individuals are welcomed in the Word and Sacrament.
