Trinity Lutheran Seeking Assistance for Venezuelan Family In Need

Trinity Lutheran Church in downtown Memphis has recently begun ministering to a Lutheran family seeking refuge from the economic crisis and political turmoil in Venezuela. The Granado family--a mother and her three young adult children--are currently staying with friends as they complete the documentation process. The mother, Priscilla, is seeking employment and the younger children are enrolling in school as the family also looks for a permanent residence; they hope to soon be joined by their father, who remains detained in Venezuela.

HOW CAN YOUR CONGREGATION HELP?

The Granado family has come to the Memphis community with literally nothing. Their journey has connected them with the Trinity Lutheran family, who seeks the help of other Memphis LCMS congregations as they welcome the Granados and assist them in establishing their new home. Food, clothes, grocery gift cards, and any other items that would be helpful for the family's new residence are being collected by Trinity. Memphis area congregations are asked to share this need with members and bring any items collected to Trinity Lutheran Church downtown (210 Washington Avenue, Memphis 38103). For those who wish to donate clothing, the family's sizes are:

Mother (Priscilla) - Pant size: 30 / Shirts: M / Shoes: 7.5

Older daughter (Sara) - Pant size: 28 / Shirts: M / Shoes: 7.5

Younger daughter (Ana) - Pant size: 26 / Shirts: M / Shoes: 7.5

Son (Samuel) - Pant size: 26 / Shirts: S / Shoes 7

Questions regarding this donation and assistance request can be directed to Trinity Lutheran Church at 525-1056, or congregation members Mitch Wood (mitwood@gmail.com) or Heidi Shafer (hmcshafer@gmail.com). Trinity Lutheran thanks you and your congregation for anything you can do to help the Granado family and welcome them with the love of Jesus

NOTE: There will be a collection box in Narthex. If you wish to donate a grocery gift card, please drop off in the church office.

CAMP
On Petit Jean
Mountain

Summer camp registration is in full swing for Camp Trinity, the Lutheran Camp on Petit Jean, with the number of campers registered well ahead of previous years' pace. Families are encouraged to register early to ensure a spot for their children.

Eight sessions are scheduled for the 2019 season. In addition to traditional camp sessions for students from 2nd through 12th grade, the calendar includes four special sessions:

Adventure Camp (June 16-21), which takes high school students off the mountain for a Buffalo River float trip, overnight camping and rock climbing or rappelling.

Arts Camp (July 14-19), a joint venture of Camp Trinity and the Little Rock School of the Arts, a ministry of Christ Little Rock. Campers in this session will be divided between grades 5-8 and grades 9-12.

Overcomers Camp (July 21-25), where youth (grade 6 and above) will be able to take part in outdoor activities with extra time and assistance as needed.

Family Camp, a short session where children will enjoy camp activities with their parents and grandparents. Family Camp has been moved to a weekend (July 26-28) to make it more convenient for working parents to participate.
