Sermon Notes

These 'sermon notes' are designed to help you get the most out of the 'Word' part of a worship service - and training your ears to listen for the Law and Gospel. Try to write two or three sentences for each, but don't worry too much about length - these are read for content - just get the good stuff down.

Serving in Worship

In lieu of writing one (1) sermon note, you may choose to participate in the areas listed below. This may be done no more than twelve times in a given year. It is up to you to arrange for these opportunities. If you think of something not on this list, have a pastor OK beforehand and initial in the space below.

- Usher
- Acolyte
- Read the Lessons
- Audio/Visual Assistant
- Other: _____ (Approved by pastor: _____)
