openingprayer

L: “Oh God, my times are in your hands...” Take my time and order it to your purpose, Lord.

P: When God has our hearts, God has our time.

openingprayer

L: Teach me to lay down my need to be busy as well as my tendency toward mindless, frenzied activity.

P: When God has our hearts, God has our time.

openingprayer

L: Help me to shut out the messages of the world that shout to me that I am what I do.

P: When God has our hearts, God has our time.

openingprayer

L: Help me to be still and know that you are Lord. Help me through the 'shoulds' and listen for your direction.

P: When God has our hearts, God has our time.

openingprayer

L: Open me to the wonder of the world around me. Teach me to be fully present and fully available in every moment of time.

P: When God has our hearts, God has our time.

openingprayer

L: Help me to approach time as the gift it is – a gift that is with me each and every moment of my life.

P: When God has our hearts, God has our time.
Amen!

remember 1 thing

Time is a great gift.
It's also very easy to waste.

But seek first the kingdom
of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be added to you.

Matthew 6:33

Stewardship

Stewardship =

Using the gifts God has given us to give glory to Him

Priority #1

- ▶ We need to put first things first, or they will be crowded out
- ▶ What are some things in life and your schedule that keep you from God?
- ▶ Read and highlight Matthew 6:33 and write “Priority #1” in the margins

But seek first the kingdom
of God and his righteousness, and all
these things will be added to you.

Matthew 6:33

wrapup

remember 1 thing

Time is a great gift.
It's also very easy to waste.

wrapup

Good use of time does not mean being constantly busy. Setting aside time to talk to God, serve others and recharge ourselves can all be great ways to strengthen our connection with God.

Every moment, second, breath and heartbeat is a gift of our Creator.

wrapup
