Carolinas District LWML Retreat

Camp Linn Haven
August 16-18, 2024

“Christmas JOY”

The Catawba Valley Zone invites you to the Annual District Retreat of the Carolinas District LWML at Camp Linn Haven in the beautiful Blue Ridge Mountains of the Linville, NC area.

In these majestic mountains, God’s creation is so prevalent, so full of flora, fauna, caverns, waterfalls and wildlife. This is a great chance to allow yourself time to be filled with God’s Joy! Camp Linn Haven is the perfect place for LWML women to worship, to gather and honor our Lord. Come to retreat in the scenic mountains of NC where you can relax, be restored and be revitalized. Come to listen, to learn, to worship our mighty God, to give thanks and to sing. At retreat you will be filled with His Word and His Holy Spirit so that when you get home, you will be filled with His JOY.

This year’s Retreat theme is “Christmas JOY.” Our Scripture Focus will be from Luke 2:11 – “For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is Christ the Lord.”

Pastor Paul Neilsen will be the Dean for our Retreat and will lead our Bible Study titled “Manger to the Cross.” We will be studying the life of Jesus here on earth.

Mark your calendars to attend the Retreat the weekend of August 16-18th. In this edition of the CCC, you will find two registration forms for Retreat. We have provided names and addresses so you will know to whom to send the forms.

Please mail one registration form to our LWML Registrar, along with your check of $10 made out to Carolinas District LWML.

Please mail the other form to Camp Linn Haven stating that you will be attending the Retreat. Please complete the form with all required information. This form goes to the Camp Director and the fee for camp is separate and payable by cash, check or credit card upon arrival at camp. The cost for camp this year is $110.00

Total cost for the Retreat weekend will be $120.

Since we have participants who enjoy attending for only one day, you will see on the form that there is a space with the cost. Participants will still need to pay the $10 to the LWML Registrar/Carolinas District LWML for materials. There is a different fee for meals to be paid to the camp. The cost of each meal is specified. Again, registration goes to two separate places.

So that we'll have adequate materials prepared for you, please pre-register. This will also enable Teirsa, our Camp Director to pre-assign cabins. The deadline for registering and sending in both forms to two separate places is Thursday, August 1st.

When you arrive at Camp, you will need to check in with Teirsa Lane, Camp Director during the hours of 3-5pm. At this time you will be assigned a cabin. This will take place in the Camp Office which is located beside the Dining Hall. Supper will be served at 6pm.

You will need to bring the following items for the weekend- bedding (twin size bunk), pillow, towel/washcloth, toiletries, rain gear/umbrella, comfortable clothing/shoes, flashlight, your Bible, a heart ready to be filled with God's Joy and a positive, JOYOUS attitude! Bring extra cash to spend at the LWML store also!

There will be several opportunities for monetary giving during the weekend. Feel free to give from your heart for the following:

A monetary collection for the Camp Dining Staff

A monetary collection for the Pond Mountain Fire and Rescue

Coins for playing MITE BINGO (all coins will be counted and given to District for Mites.)

Don't forget to bring lots of coins!

Jr. Pastoral Counselor—Pastor Tessman

Holy Week begins with Jesus riding into Jerusalem on a “colt, the foal of a donkey, which had never been ridden before”, perhaps the older brother of the donkey pictured here. There are a couple of things that are significant in that phrase. The first thing that comes to my mind is that the passage doesn’t say anything about the donkey trying to buck Jesus off, something that would be natural for a previously unriden donkey. Perhaps it sensed Who was on his back...his maker. Even more significant is that the animal was a lowly donkey, a beast of burden...not a mighty stallion prepared to carry his rider into battle. That might have been appropriate since Jesus was riding into Jerusalem to do battle with sin, death, and the devil, but a donkey is the more appropriate symbol for carrying a heavy burden. Jesus was carrying all of the sins of humankind...from the sins of Adam and Eve, to the sins being committed when Jesus returns on the last day of human history...Jesus was carrying them to the cross, to pay their debt in our place. And because Jesus did that for us, when He said “Father, forgive them”, our Heavenly Father said, “Yes, my Son!”

Have a blessed Holy Week and Easter.

Pastor Dave Tessmann

News from Carolinas District LWML President

Easter has come and gone but we still rejoice as we say “Christ has risen! He has risen indeed!”

Spring time and new life is all around us. As I watch the flowers bloom and the trees bud, I thank God for all the beauty he provides us. The changes in the colors I see outside are a wonderful sight even if the blooms and buds bring sneezing and sometimes watery eyes.

This is also the time of year we start looking for new leadership in our National LWML, District, and Zones. Please consider running for an office. I know it is hard to step out of your comfort zone. We need new leaders with new ideas to serve. We need past leaders to step into new leadership roles. Remember God is with you in every role you take on. Your sisters in Christ are here to help you and support you in whatever role you are willing to take on. Each of you have talents that can be used to help spread God’s word. Please prayerfully consider taking a leadership role in the Lutheran Women’s Missionary League in your church, Zone, District or National level. Remember to serve the Lord with gladness.

God’s Blessings,
Paula R. Daniels
Carolinas District President

2025 National Convention

2025 National Convention

Date: June 26–29, 2025

Location: Omaha, Nebraska

Theme: Growing in God's Grace

Scripture Verse: But grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. To him be the glory both now and to the day of eternity. Amen (2 Peter 3:18).

Catawba Valley Zone

The Catawba Valley Zone will be hosting the Retreat at Camp Linn Haven this year on August 16-18th. The Theme is “Christmas JOY”

Members from each of the seven churches in the zone have met twice for a Retreat planning meeting at St. John’s in Conover. All churches in the zone have been busy preparing for their part of the retreat. A group of ladies are busy sewing tote bags to use at retreat.

The Catawba Valley Zone Rally will be held on May 5th. Concordia will be the host congregation and new officers will be elected.

St. John’s has met each month this year. In January the ladies were informed of meeting times/get together and what would be going on each month. In February, District President Paula Daniels spoke to the group. Camp Director, Teirsa Lane also spoke to the group about the backpack program during Servant Event Week at Camp. In March the ladies gathered to work on table favors for Retreat in August. On March 17th the ladies held a bake sale after each church service. With the help of the GEMS, they raised over $500 toward their mission projects. In April the ladies will host Bingo and Burgers for the Senior Citizens.

The GEMS at Saint John’s have several meetings this year. At one meeting the girls learned why the pastors and acolytes wear robes during the church service and they learned how to fix tears and hems that had come loose. They made an inspirational jar filled with hearts they sewed, stuffed and also wrote bible verses and inspirational sayings on paper hearts and flowers. The jar was given to a cancer patient. Upcoming plans are to make port pillows for Phil’s Friends, send pill bottles to Matthew 25 Ministries and learn about what the Altar Guild members do to ready the church for services.

Co-President*

Central Zone

News from The Central Zone

On Saturday, March 16th, The Central Zone held their annual Spring Zone Rally at St. John's Lutheran Church in Winston-Salem, NC. A Bible study by Deb Burma, "You Are God's Treasured Possession", was led by the St. John's Society President, Kathleen Sawicki.

The women in attendance received a special gift of a treasured teacup along with jewelry treasures too. The breakfast 'green' doughnuts (St. Patrick's Day) and coffee were a hit. Everyone enjoyed the chicken salad and pimento cheese lunch with fruit and veggies.

Following the Bible study a business meeting was held. Mary Ann Boone was chosen to be the President of the Central Zone for the next two years. Janis McDaniels and Elizabeth Jones volunteered to serve on the By-laws Committee to review The Central Zone Bylaws to update them to align with District Bylaws. A third person will be sought by Mary Ann Boone to be a part of this committee. Three women will be sought by the President to serve on the Nominating Committee for the next year, to seek nominations for the offices of Vice President and Secretary.

The women present all agreed that The Central Zone would provide the food and drink for The President's Reception on Friday night at the 2024 District Convention in September. The women were reminded of upcoming District events, The Joy Event, The Camp Linn Haven Retreat and the District Convention, with specific information about each event.

The 2025 Central Zone Spring Rally will be hosted by either Resurrection Lutheran in Burlington OR Grace Lutheran in Greensboro. Information about the 2025 National Convention in Omaha, Nebraska was also shared.

Ebenezer Lutheran – Greensboro News

During the months of January and February, the LWML and Board of Social Concern worked together to gather items needed for the homeless in our area served by the Interactive Resources Center of Greensboro. Many members of our congregation donated items. Many items were purchased with the support of Thrivent cards. Items collected were cases of water, laundry detergent, snack packs, towels, washcloths, handwarmers, socks, underwear, toiletries, gloves and hats. Our LWML has supported our HUGS project before and are very thankful for the Hats, Underwear, Gloves and Socks that were given this time. We praise our Lord for the generous hearts of Ebenezer Lutheran Church.

The LWML also sponsored the February Covered Dish Lunch that occurs monthly for our congregation. Many bring food and our Women in Mission provide the drinks and desserts. We set up the tables with beautiful table decorations too...naturally that would be the use of purple. And the ladies wear our purple LWML aprons! We were thankful for the great turnout that day.
