“Let Someone Else do it . . .”

The church was saddened to learn of the death this week of one of our church’s most valuable members. Someone Else.

Someone Else’s passing creates a vacancy that will be difficult to fill. Someone Else has been with us for many years. Someone Else did far more than a normal person’s share of the work. Whenever there was a job to do, a class to teach, or a meeting to attend, one name was on everyone’s list: “Let Someone Else do it.”

It was common knowledge that Someone Else was among the largest givers in the church. Whenever there was a financial need, everyone just assumed Someone Else would make up the difference. Someone Else was a wonderful person—sometimes appearing superhuman, but a person can only do so much. Were the truth known, everybody expected too much of Someone Else.

Now Someone Else is gone! We wonder what we are going to do. Someone Else left a wonderful example to follow, but WHO is going to do the things Someone Else did? When you are asked to help, REMEMBER—we can’t depend on Someone Else!
