

A Note from Our Executive Director

There's a lot of passion in the air at First Lutheran. Good works inspired by faith surround the church family and it shows. You don't have to be around much at all to see the results and rewards coming from the work of our membership. From the activities with youth, facilities, office, missions, education, worship, and the like, many are lovingly serving to help accomplish God's plan. What a thankful and wonderful experience we enjoy at First!

Because so much is accomplished, it may not seem obvious that more help is needed. We do need more participation and we know with service in our church there comes a sense of ownership, a belonging in God's family, along with the joy of giving and doing God's work.

Wherever your current interest may be, or even a new passion you haven't even discovered so far, consider participating by getting involved. Surely, God has an inspirational plan for you to serve in our church.

Please reach out and, if you would like, leave contact information in my box. I'll follow up with you personally.
