Thank you!

There are times when the words “Thank You” are just not enough. Over the past few weeks, as Mary and I struggled with hospitalization and recovery, we have received so many blessings. After each storm, the snow mysteriously disappeared from our walk. We received cards, gifts, messages and prayers almost daily. We enjoyed the Christmas Carolers (and so did some of our neighbors). Pastor Johnson and the Church staff have been very supportive and have offered us whatever assistance we might need. My son spent a week with us during the most difficult time. So many blessings!

I am excited about being back in the office. Mary still has a way to go in regaining her breath. I know that the challenges of this past year are not over, but with God’s help we will move forward into a new and healthier year. Thank You and God’s blessings.

--Pastor Steve & Mary

Words of Thanks

We wish to thank everyone who so kindly remembered us with cards, special notes, gifts and goodies for Christmas. This year when we’ve had to be apart so much made it even more special to us to receive these precious gifts! May God bless all of you in the New Year!

--Pastor Dave & Jane
