The Ten Commandments: Do Not Covet

_____

If you were given one billion dollars tomorrow, what would be your first purchase? What are some things that money can't buy?

Catechism: Read the Ninth and Tenth Commandments & Meanings (found between questions 87 and 88) and Question 90 together. Bible: Read Psalm 37:1-4 with your parent/faith mentor.

Review the questions below. Then go to gracelutherantx.org/confirmation to watch the video "Do not Covet" with Pastor Keith. As you watch, take notes. Then discuss these questions and your answers with your parent or faith mentor.

❖ What are some modern day possessions that people covet (instead of the "manservant, maidservant, ox or donkey" listed in the 10th Commandment)?

❖ What is Coveting?

* "These commandments are a command to be content." Explain this statement.

What have you wanted "too much"? What is one thing you could do this week to desire more of a relationship with God?

Begin your prayer by thanking God for three people, three places, and three things that are important to you. Ask God for the peace of contentment in your life.

Say this Bible memory verse outloud to your parent or faith mentor: "Keep your life free from the love of money, and be content with what you have, for he has said, 'I will never leave you nor forsake you." - Hebrews 13:5

Parents/Faith Mentors:

Please sign that you have completed this worksheet with your 8th grader by December 17.
