A LIFE QUOTE FROM LUTHERANS "As we gather this Easter just with our household, or perhaps all alone, we will undoubtedly miss some of the traditions that we have embraced over the years. Do not lament the loss of what does not last. Rather, embrace the enduring message that 'He is risen! He is risen indeed!' It changes everything!" Rev. Robert Fleischmann, Christian Life Resources – A Life Quote from Lutherans For Life • lutheransforlife.org

Building Healthy Families: Did You Know? "Our Lord has written the promise of resurrection, not in books alone, but in every leaf in springtime," wrote Dr. Martin Luther. We celebrate that promise of the resurrection with you today. Christ is Risen, He is Risen Indeed! Hallelujah! Joyful Easter Blessings to you, your family, and your congregational family from the staff and Board of Directors of Lutheran Family Service. Lutheran Family Service - www.LutheranFamilyService.org (515.573.3138 and LFSiowa.org).

Memory Verse Challenge The Synod has put out a memory verse challenge for each week. Hopefully these verses will bless your week. This week the verse is: Romans 6:8-9

John 20:1 – “Now on the first day of the week ...”

All is made new by the Resurrection of Jesus! Even the day of worship has transitioned from the Old Testament’s Saturday Sabbath to the Lord’s Day of the New Testament. For the Lord has made all things new. He has begun a new week for a new creation in rising from the dead as the New Adam. We are also made new in Him – a new heart, a new life, new desires, and a new outlook toward God. All this comes from our Risen Lord’s grace. Especially after the sort of year we’ve had since last Easter. It’s sure good news to hear that the Lord makes all things start afresh.
