PASTOR'S PEN Fearless: Freedom

Happy 4th of July! Happy Independence Day! As we consider our freedom, we cannot forget General President George Washington. Dr. Scott O Baird had this to say about George Washington in his article for Griffen Hill:
Our fearless leader, George Washington, is known for his courage and his fight.
Our fearless leader, George Washington, faced challenges that stretched him to his limits.
The result of facing challenges head on was that he grew into a universally beloved founder of our nation and our first president.

At least three types of challenges George Washington encountered are common to our human condition. Certainly, the degree to which each person experiences these difficulties varies from person to person. Washington experienced these difficulties at a level of intensity that challenged even this remarkable icon.

The three types of challenges faced by George Washington and every person that has graced our planet include:

- Danger and threat of physical harm from mortal enemies
- Attacks from detractors and critics
- Health challenges that were debilitating and death threatening

While we are grateful to have such a “fearless leader,” it is even more important to have a God who did not back down when Satan enslaved us by sin. This slavery of which no one can liberate themselves, but God could, and God did. He refused to leave us as slaves.

God promised the liberator, the one who would and did break the chains of slavery and free us from Satan and the judgment of death. Liberation accomplished in Jesus, God's Son who was despised and rejected, mocked, and ridiculed, beaten, and bloodied and crucified.

In this selfless act, this merciful act, Jesus freed us from sin and death, just as Jesus was freed from the tomb where He was laid. Now, in the risen Lord, we live in fearless freedom. Yes, Satan still prowls and accuses, but Jesus strengthens and defends. Yes, we still sin, but Jesus forgives. Yes, we still die, but we live unto life everlasting.

Our nations independence is celebrated on July 4th, our independence from sin, death, and the devil is celebrated at Easter, and every day!

Happy Independence Day!

STEWARDSHIP

Lutheran Bible Translators <https://lbt.org/>

The mission statement: Lutheran Bible Translators makes God’s Word accessible to those who do not yet have it in the language they understand best.

The Vision Statement: Lutheran Bible Translators makes God’s Word accessible to those who do not yet have it in the language they understand best.

Collaboration in the Bible translation movement is essential for a project’s success. Mission-minded leaders seek out a partnership with Lutheran Bible Translators to help them achieve their vision.

Local leaders and Lutheran Bible Translators are committed to removing barriers in the Bible translation movement. Strategies are developed for ongoing growth and impact with resources such as technology, meeting spaces, and training.

Investing in the leaders of the Bible translation movement exponentially increases the reach to support more language communities. More people will have God’s Word in their hands.

Good Shepherd Lutheran Church supports to the work of the Rev. Dr. Tim and Lisa Beckendorf who are professionally trained and equipped for cross-cultural and native Bible translation ministry.

Tim served as a volunteer missionary with the LCMS for one year in Slovakia, teaching English as a Foreign Language at the Lutheran High School of Tisovec. Lisa was born and grew up in Papua New Guinea, where her parents were missionaries. She returned to the States at age 17, to attend college. She later served three years as a volunteer missionary in Slovakia, where she met Tim.

Tim was ordained at Immanuel Lutheran Church in Osmond, Nebraska in 2003. Since July 2005, Tim and Lisa have been working with LBT among the Khwe people of Botswana. They have two sons, Aaron and Andrew and currently live in Shakawe in northern Botswana.

STEWARDSHIP THOUGHT:
“For you were called to freedom, brothers. Only do not use your freedom as an opportunity for the flesh, but through love serve one another.”
Galatians 5:13

CALEB SENDS HIS THANKS!

Dear friend of Concordia Seminary,
The summer calendar at your Seminary is filled with summer session courses for our students, speaking engagements across the country and around the world for our faculty (including myself), and campus visits for prospective students and friends. In addition, the summer event that never fails to heighten the excitement on campus is the return of fourth-year Master of Divinity students from their vicarages.

Vicarage is so important in affirming and clarifying their vocational path toward ministry. Students get a taste of what is to come and, it whets their appetites for more. They return from vicarage eager to finish strong at the Seminary and then go and serve wherever God calls them.

This time last year, Caleb Wehling and his wife, Alicia, packed up their belongings and headed to Mansfield, Texas, where he has been serving as a vicar at St. John Lutheran Church. Very soon they’ll be returning as a family of three. Their daughter, Lucy, arrived just a month after their move to Texas.

“Please thank the donors for me,” he says. “Their support is huge! There’s a shortage of pastors in our church, and it’s a big commitment to become one. Having their support makes a big difference. I want to thank them for making this possible!”

Echoing Caleb’s words, thank you for making Seminary possible for future pastors, deaconesses and missionaries. Please give generously. Thank you again for your encouragement and support. May the Lord be pleased to use your generous giving to shepherd His flock in the decades to come.

Sincerely,
Dr. Thomas J. Egger
President
Concordia Seminary, St. Louis
