

News & Announcements

THIS WEEK'S ALTAR FLOWERS are given to the glory of God by Charlene Stevens in memory of her father Joe Hawkins.

YOUTH GROUP will be getting together on December 16th for a Christmas party from 3:30 – 5:30. All youth are invited to bring a gift of no value. It should be something that you currently have but you no longer use or want it.

OUR ANGEL TREE is now up. Many tags are still available. Please take a tag, purchase the item, return the item unwrapped in a plastic bag with the tag. All gifts are needed back to the church by December 18th. Thank you for serving those that need a little help this year.

A NOTE OF THANKS to everyone that participated in the youth fundraiser last weekend. If you participated, you may pick up your zip drive and a t-shirt in the fellowship hall. A big thank you to Lisa for donating her time and talents!

CALLING ALL BAKERS. We are once again soliciting donations of coffee cake and other baked treats for our Sunday School Christmas program. Also, please label items that contain nuts as we have members with severe nut allergies.

A Lutheran approach to exorcism

Did you know that Pope Francis' favorite exorcist is a Lutheran pastor in Argentina?

During the Pope's tenure as a cardinal in Argentina, he would regularly call on Pastor Manuel Acuna of Good Shepherd Lutheran Church in Buenos Aires whenever local bishops would not give permission for an exorcism.

The demand for exorcisms seems to be increasing.

Half of all Americans believe in demonic possession and, as of October of this year, the Archdiocese of Indianapolis has received some 1,700 requests for exorcism.

The Lutheran Church of Madagascar, one of the largest in the world, regularly performs exorcisms of people and places (house blessings).

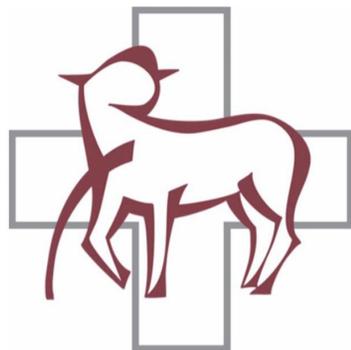

According to Dr. Robert Bennett of our Ft. Wayne Seminary and who has spoken twice at Grace on demonic possession, an exorcism does not require elaborate ritual nor the approval of a bishop.

Speaking the Word of God and praying is essential. Singing hymns is also helpful.

Dr. Bennett adds that our Lutheran liturgy is itself exorcistic, since it contains God's Word from beginning to end, incorporates confession and absolution, the Lord's Supper, blessings and hymns.

Jesus is the only exorcist, and He has already defeated the devil at the cross.

When we employ His Word and His Sacraments, Christ Himself is present to cast out Satan and his lies, removing sin and its consequences from people and places.

We have 15 more households to invite to Grace this year.

2018 is the fifty-fifth anniversary of our Indiana District of the Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod. In recognition of this, we will invite 55 households and/or individuals to worship this year. The world needs the Gospel, including our many unchurched neighbors, coworkers and classmates. The cults (Mormons, Jehovah's Witnesses, etc.) are busy in your neighborhood! Even in Christian churches the Gospel is being distorted, obscured by legalism and self-chosen works in order to gain favor with God. You may invite the same individuals you invited last year (most don't come unless invited several times), or new individuals whom you have yet to invite

Who could I invite?

- My neighbor who doesn't attend church;
- My crafting buddy;
- My book buddy...

SOUND TEACHING

TITUS 2:1

ADULT EDUCATION classes continue this week with the following:

"Romans: Alive in Christ" A CPH study (13 sessions.) Romans summarizes well both a quarter century of Paul's missionary preaching and teaching, and the essential emphases of his evangelical theology. Led by Mark Newton.

"Christians in Conflict" A Bible Study About Peacemaking looks at the causes of conflict. It shows how the biblical principles of confession, absolution, and forgiveness are all key in finding a resolution. God's Word is the most important part of peacemaking and the only way to facilitate true healing and comfort. Led by Darrah Franks & Deaconess Julie.

"Liturgy: Yesterday, Today and Forever"

Have you ever wondered why we worship like we do each Sunday? Where did the Liturgy come from? Join us for a 12-week class tracing the origin and development of the Historic Liturgy. Led by Russell Davies.

"East Wing Adult Bible Study" for parents of young families. The study digs deeper into the weekly children's Bible story.
