

All of you together are Christ's body, and each of you is a part of it.

We are in Christ, and are knit together. We learn to care for each other, giving thanks He has called us to the everlasting Church. We are God's servants, gathering to hear His promises and serve others in Jesus' name. We know our Redeemer lives.

He lives to silence all my fears; He lives to wipe away my tears; He lives to calm my troubled heart; He lives all blessings to impart.

"The one you seek is not here. See... He is risen."

Blessings from our care ministry who send cards.

Wednesday morning Bible class reads the Scriptures with Pastor. Come grow in faith, hope, and charity.

We love, because He first loved us. Hear us pray.

Lord, grant us faithful pastors to preach the Good News.

Come, Lord Jesus, be our guest. Let Thy gifts to us be blessed.

Gary teaches about Luther. Here he's either making a point, or describing how the fish he caught was "This big!"

St. Matthew children learn, play, and grow in Christ.

Parents and grandparents hear children sing of Jesus.

Confirmation students prepare for the Lord's Supper.

A mission project in action, serving our community.

Studying, praying, and caring at John Knox Village.

I baptize you in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

Our bell choir rings praise and gratitude to God.

Now the light has gone away. Father, listen while I pray, asking Thee to watch and keep and to send me quiet sleep.
Jesus, Savior, wash away all that has been wrong today. Help me every day to be good and gentle, more like Thee.
Let my near and dear ones be always near and dear to Thee. O bring me and all I love to Thy happy home above.
Now my evening praise I give: Thou didst die that I might live: all my blessings come from Thee, O how good Thou art to me.
