Canticum Novum concert,
First German, Sunday, June 22nd, 9:00am: Canticum Novum concert, First German, Sunday, June 22nd, 9:00am: Canticum Novum is a chamber choir that strives for excellence in proclaiming the name of Christ through music. These choir members, from WELS churches across the Midwest and beyond, rehearse independently leading up to the performances and meet as a group for only a week of intensive rehearsals, fellowship, and performance. This year, CN has selected First German as one of their three concert sites! Canticum Novum is directed by Jonathan Laabs, an MLHS alum and son of Vacancy Pastor Laabs. This year's program, entitled "The Full, Final Sacrifice," centers on God's perfect plan of salvation realized through the ultimate sacrifice of Jesus Christ. You will hear classic motets by Mendelssohn, Bruckner, Finzi, and Schütz, as well as modern gems by Kyle Pederson, Jocelyn Hagen, Tom Trenney, and Elaine Hagenberg – all beautiful music to our God's glory!
