Tenth Sunday after Pentecost

August 9, 2020

Welcome: We are glad that you are here or are watching our worship service online. May you be blessed through this time of worship. We pray you find today's service a source of encouragement and strength. For those worshipping in person please take time to register your attendance using the slips in the pew rack. These can be placed in the offering plates by the door as you exit.

Prayer Requests are always welcome. To have someone included in our prayers during worship, please call the pastor or church office or write down the request and give it to the pastor.

The Lord's Supper: As we come to the Lord's Supper we both receive and proclaim. We receive into our mouths not only bread and wine but the very body and blood of our Lord Jesus Christ to eat and to drink for the forgiveness of sins and to strengthen our union with him and with one another. Through our participation in this Holy Meal we proclaim his death until He comes. By our participation in the sacrament at this congregation which is a member of the Lutheran Church – Missouri Synod, we are indicating our agreement with the confession of the LCMS. We request that only those who share this confession and are instructed in the sacrament take part today.

A Little Luther: In today's quote Luther uses the example of Peter from the Gospel lesson to point to our need to keep an anxious eye on our faith. "A Christian modestly says to God: Dear Lord, although I am sure of my position, I am unable to sustain it without Thee. Help Thou me, or I am lost. – He is indeed certain of his position, as Peter was on the water (Matt. 14:29). Peter could not be more certain than he was. The water was supporting him. He saw no obstacle in his way. But when the wind came rushing on, he saw what was lacking in him. This must be taken well to heart. For although we are sure of our position, have Scripture and are covered and armed with clear passages in the very best way, yet our security depends on the power, the will and the might of God, who protects and defends us against the devil, our adversary and greatest enemy. But this happens that God may make us determined and yet keep us fearful, so that we are always filled with concern and cry to Him: O Lord, help us, and increase our faith (Lk 17:15); For without Thee we are undone. At heart we should always feel as if we were just beginning to believe today, and every day we should feel as if we had never heard the Gospel before. We must believe anew every day." WLS ¶ 1420

Unknown waves before me roll, Hiding rock and treach’rous shoal.
Chart and compass come from Thee. Jesus, Savior, pilot me.

Boist’rous waves obey Thy will When Thou say’st to them, “Be still!”
Wondrous Sov’reign of the sea, Jesus, Savior, pilot me.

May I hear Thee say to me, “Fear not, I will pilot thee.”

Old Testament Reading

Job 38:4–18

⁴“Where were you when I laid the foundation of the earth? Tell me, if you have understanding. ⁵Who determined its measurements—surely you know! Or who stretched the line upon it? ⁶On what were its bases sunk, or who laid its cornerstone, ⁷when the morning stars sang together and all the sons of God shouted for joy? ⁸“Or who shut in the sea with doors when it burst out from the womb, ⁹when I made clouds its garment and thick darkness its swaddling band, ¹⁰and prescribed limits for it and set bars and doors, ¹¹and said, ‘Thus far shall you come, and no farther, and here shall your proud waves be stayed’? ¹²“Have you commanded the morning since your days began, and caused the dawn to know its place, ¹³that it might take hold of the skirts of the earth, and the wicked be shaken out of it? ¹⁴It is changed like clay under the seal, and its features stand out like a garment. ¹⁵From the wicked their light is withheld, and their uplifted arm is broken. ¹⁶“Have you entered into the springs of the sea, or walked in the recesses of the deep? ¹⁷Have the gates of death been revealed to you, or have you seen the gates of deep darkness? ¹⁸Have you comprehended the expanse of the earth? Declare, if you know all this.

P This is the Word of the Lord.

Epistle

Romans 10:5–17

⁵For Moses writes about the righteousness that is based on the law, that the person who does the commandments shall live by them. ⁶But the righteousness based on faith says, “Do not say in your heart, ‘Who will ascend into heaven?’” (that is, to bring Christ down) ⁷or “‘Who will descend into the abyss?’” (that is, to bring Christ up from the dead). ⁸But what does it say? “The word is near you, in your mouth and in your heart” (that is, the word of faith that we proclaim); ⁹because, if you confess with your mouth that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. ¹⁰For with the heart one believes and is justified, and with the mouth one confesses and is saved. ¹¹For the Scripture says, “Everyone who believes in him will not be put to shame.” ¹²For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek; the same Lord is Lord of all, bestowing his riches on all who call on him. ¹³For “everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved.” ¹⁴But how are they to call on him in whom they have not believed? And how are they to believe in him of whom they have never heard? And how are they to hear without someone preaching? ¹⁵And how are they to preach unless they are sent? As it is written, “How beautiful are the feet of those who preach the good news!” ¹⁶But they have not all obeyed the gospel. For Isaiah says, “Lord, who has believed what he has heard from us?” ¹⁷So faith comes from hearing, and hearing through the word of Christ.

Do not be afraid.” ²⁸And Peter answered him, “Lord, if it is you, command me to come to you on the water.” ²⁹He said, “Come.” So Peter got out of the boat and walked on the water and came to Jesus. ³⁰But when he saw the wind, he was afraid, and beginning to sink he cried out, “Lord, save me.” ³¹Jesus immediately reached out his hand and took hold of him, saying to him, “O you of little faith, why did you doubt?” ³²And when they got into the boat, the wind ceased. ³³And those in the boat worshiped him, saying, “Truly you are the Son of God.”

C I believe in one God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth and of all things visible and invisible.

And in one Lord Jesus Christ, the only-begotten Son of God, begotten of His Father before all worlds, God of God, Light of Light, very God of very God, begotten, not made, being of one substance with the Father, by whom all things were made; who for us men and for our salvation came down from heaven and was incarnate by the Holy Spirit of the virgin Mary and was made man; and was crucified also for us under Pontius Pilate. He suffered and was buried. And the third day He rose again according to the Scriptures and ascended into heaven and sits at the right hand of the Father. And He will come again with glory to judge both the living and the dead, whose kingdom will have no end.

And I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord and giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son together is worshiped and glorified, who spoke by the prophets. ATTENDANCE REGISTRATION: In our era of pandemic precautions it is important that we as a congregation try to keep as accurate a record as possible of those in attendance at our various worship services. If someone who was COVID 19 positive attended a service we would need to be able to contact all those who attended the service to notify them. It is a great help to this end if you register your attendance by completing the attendance registration slip in the pew rack and depositing it in an offering plate as you leave. Thank you for your help.

ONLINE WORSHIP: Livestream of our Sunday morning services is being offered each week. This allows those watching from home or on the road to see the service practically as it happens. Due to this change, the link to take viewers to the livestream is not available until Sunday morning. Check the church's website www.gracewayne.com or Facebook page for the link. A recording of the service is still available to watch later in the day or week. May God bless your worship time.

SUNDAY SCHOOL: In His Word, God commands that I am content. The Bible account “Ahab Covets Naboth’s Vineyard” demonstrates the sad consequences of covetousness. God provides all we truly need in this life. Consider discussing, “How does God give us what we need every day? How can you learn to be satisfied with what you have?” Online videos covering the lesson of the week with links to related activities will continue to be posted on the Sunday School Facebook page (www.facebook.com/ssgracewayne) throughout the summer. We will be covering the same lesson materials that our Children's Sunday School classes will be using. The hope is that as a family you can look at and learn about God's great truths throughout the entire Bible and not just have this be something you do on Sunday mornings, but something you discuss and study as a family throughout the entire week. That is why we want to open this class up to all adults, but especially invite the parents of any of our children to attend this class or a Sunday School class every chance they get! Our world is going through so much right now, and we are too as individuals so we need God's word now as much if not more than ever before. Join us, and invite your friends!

CUP OF GRACE MINISTRY: Classes have been scheduled to start at Wayne State College on August 17th! We are working at getting the word out to everyone that we will be starting Sunday Night Dinners on August 16th at 7:30 pm! This is a great time to join together in fellowship with some awesome people while enjoying a free dinner. Even if you do not attend WSC but are still around town while either commuting to another college or taking a break this year but would like to join in the fun you are invited! We will also be discussing the best time for us as a group to schedule a weekly Bible Study. I know last year these were held on Tuesday evenings, but I want to talk with you on the 17th and see if that evening still works, or if we should look at another time. Either way I know that I am very excited to be able to come back together with you all for another great year!!!

SUNDAY SCHOOL: We want to remind you that as Wayne Community Schools are set to open their new Academic year on August 13th that will also be the beginning of our Sunday School and Mid-Week classes! We will kick off Sunday School with a small scale Rally Day that will be the main theme and emphasis for our Church Services on August 16th with Sunday School classes beginning that same day at 9:15AM! We will recognize our 3rd and 6th Grade students by presenting them with a Bible and Small Catechism as in years past on that date, but this will be done at the end of both of our regular Sunday Services where we still will be practicing social distancing. Families can pick up their Bible and Small Catechism after either service and they will be asked to stand at their pew to be recognized during the announcement time following the service they attend.

MID-WEEK CLASSES: Mid-Week classes will also begin on Wednesday August 19th at 6:30PM! This is for all of our 3rd through 8th graders! Please come join us, and if you have not received a letter in the mail one should hopefully be coming, but we have a form that we have asked you to fill out for us so that we can have your updated information such as correct spelling of names, phone numbers, email addresses, etc. We will again have the rule that if Wayne Community Schools is able to meet we will be meeting, but if Wayne Community Schools for some reason is not able to meet we will not have classes that week. This could be due to weather or health concerns in our community. Please keep that in mind, but we look forward to being with you again and diving back into God's word starting on August 19th! And for our 7th and 8th graders confirmation families we will have an orientation meeting on August 12th at 6:30PM!

HIGH SCHOOL YOUTH/PARENT BIBLE CLASS: Our Sunday School class will resume for all High School Students and their parents on August 30th at 9:15am! We are very excited to be back and continuing our discovery of how God's word can and does impact our everyday lives at school, home and in our community and nation. Join us this fall in the conference room located to the north of the upstairs fellowship hall as we dive into a study called How to Study and Understand the Bible! This is a great introduction to good Bible Study skills for both personal reading and group studies. We will learn about the Bible; how and when it was recorded; understand the principles of interpretation; and discover the proper use of tools available for all Christians to better grasp the impact of Scripture on everyday life. We will especially take a look at topics that High School youth are facing in the world today. Contact Jeff and Colleen Simpson or Pastor Erik for more information and we look forward to seeing you on August 30th! P.S. High School Youth... We NEED YOU to Bring your Parents!!! Refreshments will be provided.
