Pastor

Michael Buchhorn

904 Logan Wayne, NE 402-375-1905

Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light for my path. I have taken an oath and confirmed it, that I will follow your righteous laws.

Psalm 119:105-106

Often as students begin their junior confirmation instruction they misspell the word "confirmation" by changing the first "i" to an "o" thereby changing the word from confirmation to conformation. Actually, that is not a bad mistake. The ideas should be related.

Confirmation instruction and the rite of confirmation provide an opportunity for baptized Christians to learn about the confession, life and mission of the Christian Church. The catechism indicates that the rite of confirmation "provides the opportunity for the individual Christian, relying on God's promise given in Holy Baptism, to make a personal public confession of the faith and a lifelong pledge of fidelity to Christ" (p. 51). Confirmation is about more than getting a fancy piece of paper with a nice seal. The faith we proclaim centers on Jesus who gave us something more than a set of propositions to recite. We have been given a pattern to follow. The command of Jesus in the great commission of Matthew 28 was to make disciples, followers. Disciples were to be made by baptism and by teaching the baptized to "observe all that [Jesus] commanded" (Mt. 28:20).

A promise is confirmed when it has been proven to be true. The Bible frequently speaks of God confirming his promises. He proves them to be true by repeating his promise and ultimately by fulfilling it. The greatest confirmation of the promises of God we will celebrate this month with our observance of Easter. We celebrate the fulfillment of the promises of God confirmed as we remember Jesus the very lamb of God who gave his life as a sacrifice for sin. Over and over again by His words and actions Jesus confirmed all of the promises of God. He fulfilled them even though it meant that He would have to lay down his life as an atoning sacrifice for sin. It is in response to God's confirmed promises that we make our promises.

In response to God's many promises made to us, we make a promise to him. Confirmation promises are one way in which see God's promises made in baptism on display. Through our promise we are giving testimony that yes the Holy Spirit was given, faith created and sins forgiven. As a result we sincerely promise to be faithful to Him. But we are not done. The psalmist so long ago said, "I have taken an oath and confirmed it, that I will follow your righteous laws." The promises made on confirmation day are promises to conform our life to the example given to us by Jesus.

Because God has promised to be our helper, because he has promised to love us no matter what, because he has promised to give us his Holy Spirit, we open our mouths to make a promise to Him. For those promises to be more than empty words day by day, we are to conform our life to the pattern laid down for you by Jesus.

May God strengthen you day by day that we all conform our lives to Jesus and confirm the oath made by following his righteous decrees. And should we stray may that lamp and light of His Word point us back to the cross where we find forgiveness and life, that we once again walk in the way that leads to life. May God grant it for Jesus' sake.

In Christ,

Pastor Buchhorn

We will observe the rite of confirmation
this year on Palm Sunday, March 24

Beyond grateful

Thank you for the outpouring of love and support you have given me and my family upon the sudden unexpected death of our beloved Pastor Carl Lilienkamp. We are beyond blessed to have had Carl in our lives and thank God for him and for all of you who have shared your memories of him with us and remembered us in your prayers. We are comforted to know that he is rejoicing in Heaven for all eternity with his Savior, Jesus. God's blessings! Darlene and Family

Fisher's of Kids Preschool

It has been another busy month in preschool! We explored different ways that we can keep warm in winter, and we learned how animals keep warm. The students learned new songs to celebrate Presidents' Day and Groundhog Day. Stories were also read about George Washington and Abraham Lincoln, and we identified their faces on coins. Visitors came to the preschool and also read books throughout the month. Students enjoyed their valentine parties! They exchanged valentines with their friends, played games, and had special prizes and treats! Still to come this month is a visit from Dr. Burrows for Dental Health week. Students will also be reviewing shapes at the end of the month.

During March students are scheduled to sing in church, and we will be having Parent/Teacher conferences. We will also be hunting for "treasure" to celebrate St. Patrick's Day, and we will be getting ready for Easter and hunting for eggs. Other themes for March include: Read Across America, Hedgehogs/Hibernation, and Spring Weather.

CHILDREN'S Sunday School

Through the month of February children have been learning about some famous kings of the Old Testament. Particularly about Israel's first king, Saul and also about King David. Even though God used these men in a unique way, they still faced obstacles like we do. Through their lives we see more about the consequence of sin, the blessing of friendship and the importance of worship. In March we will be learning more about King Solomon and the prophet Elijah.

Classes are held for preschool Students through eighth grade. We begin with a unified opening in the basement each week at 9:15 a.m. where we get an introduction to the lesson for the week, sing a song, eat a cookie or two and share good news. Come and be a part of our Christian Education program.

Midweek Classes

Each Wednesday following the midweek Lenten worship service we gather for our midweek classes for third through eighth grade. These classes help our students learn more about the content of the Bible and the doctrines which are drawn from the Bible concerning the central teachings of the church as summarized by the Small Catechism.

Please note that there will be no midweek class during Holy Week (March 27). Thank you to our excellent midweek class instructors who lead these

Special Called Voters' Meeting

February 25, 2024

The voters of Grace Lutheran Church met at 9:15 a.m. on Sunday, February 25, 2024 at a special meeting to discuss calling a graduate from the 2024 spring LCMS seminary graduating class.

There were 45 eligible voting members present for the meeting.

Meeting was called to order by President, Craig Evans.

Opening prayer and devotion was led by Pastor Buchhorn.

Pastor Buchhorn explained the process of the call to the voting members and how the process of calling a seminarian differs from calling a pastor presently serving in the field. When calling from the seminary rather than designating one candidate, suitable candidates are identified and the final decision on which of the acceptable candidates is placed with our congregation is left to the Board of Assignments which works with our Nebraska District LCMS president. Ultimately four candidates were interviewed by the call committee and all were deemed acceptable. Due to the number of churches making a request and the number of candidates available we are not guaranteed to receive a candidate.

Call Committee Report: Chairman Craig Evans delivered the following report.

Following the straw poll conducted during the Annual Congregational meeting indicating the strong preference to attempt to fill our Associate Pastor vacancy with a new graduate from the Seminary, our call committee has been working through that process for the past several months.

In consultation with the Nebraska District LCMS president and the placement directors from both of our seminaries, the names and credentials of several potential candidates were provided. Congregations seeking to fill associate pastor positions are allowed to interview candidates since they need to be a good fit with the ministry team already in place. After reviewing that information, requests were made to interview four candidates via video as possibilities for placement in our congregation. These interviews were conducted in January. Three of the candidates were from Concordia Seminary, St. Louis, Missouri and one from Concordia Theological Seminary, Ft. Wayne, Indiana.

In the seminary call process, the congregation may specify a single person but by doing so the congregation's odds of having that specific candidate assigned are lessened. Therefore, it is preferable for the congregation to be open to receiving multiple candidates. It was the consensus of the call committee that while variously gifted and having unique backgrounds any of the four would be a valuable addition to our pastoral staff and a welcomed part of our congregation.

The candidates are all 25-29 years of age. All are married. Two are newly-wed in 2023. One couple has a child. They each are originally from the Midwest: St. Louis, Colorado, Kansas and Nebraska. They hold undergraduate degrees in a variety of fields including Psychology, Biology & Chemistry, Math and Classical Languages. Three are graduates from Concordia University, Nebraska and one from Creighton University. Their spouses have a variety of backgrounds such as Accounting, Lutheran Day School Teacher, homemaker and Deaconess. Several of the spouses also have undergraduate degrees from Concordia University, Nebraska.

In issuing an undesignated call, we trust the Holy Spirit to work through our church's normal order and the decision as to which of the candidates we interviewed is best paired for Grace is left to the Nebraska District President working in consultation with the other district presidents and the seminary placement departments. If our call is successful, we along with the candidate would learn which family would be coming to us through the seminary Call Day service (April 23 & 24). The seminarian would need to complete their remaining coursework and their graduation would be May 17. New pastors would then plan for their ordination day and installation and should be at work in their new field of service in June or July.

A website will be provided to watch call placements. Should it appear likely our call will be filled a 'watch' party will be planned.

Questions were entertained.

A motion to call a graduate from the 2024 spring LCMS seminary graduating class to serve as associate pastor of Grace Lutheran Church of Wayne at an annual salary of $48,372 plus an annual housing allowance of $12,000 was made by Doug Temme; seconded by Jerry Echtenkamp. Motion unanimously carried.

Pastor Buchhorn led an additional prayer.

A motion to adjourn was made by Jerry Echtenkamp.

The Lord's Prayer was spoken as closing.

Respectfully submitted,
Michelle Ekberg

The roof leak over the bell room in the front of the sanctuary from the heating vent pipe will be further evaluated by Craig & Nick when the weather allows. Under counter lights in the northwest corner of the kitchen were installed
