

Major events are normally accompanied by unusual or abnormal things. Confirmation, graduation and weddings are celebrated with unusual things such as gatherings and parties, special food, cards and gifts. The arrival of a president is accompanied by a motorcade, secret service, banners and signs. A major event in God carrying out his plan to send the world a Savior was about to take place. God was going to bring the nation of Israel, the people he had chosen to eventually produce the Savior, out of Egypt to live in the land he had promised. Such a major event called for some significantly abnormal things. Let's see what the Lord did, understand why and what we can learn from them.
