PreK-1st GRADES

READ this week's story: The Story Bible page 121

God wants us to love him most of all. During our Bible lesson, we will learn about how the Israelites sinned against the First Commandment.

Story Review Questions

1. What is God's First Commandment?
[You shall have no other gods.]
2. What sinful thing did the Israelites ask Aaron to do while Moses was gone?
[Make gods to lead them.]
3. What sinful thing did they do after Aaron made a golden calf?
[They worshiped it as a god.]
4. Who asked God to forgive the Israelites for worshiping a god that was not real?
[Moses]
5. What are ways that we may sometimes sin against the First Commandment?
[When we love other things more than God. (examples: our toys, friends, pets, playing, etc.)]
6. What can we ask God to do for us when we sin against the First Commandment?
[Forgive us.]
7. Why does God forgive us?
[He loves us; Jesus took all our sins away.]

Play Dough Craft Activity

Use the play dough and craft stick provided to create items from today's lesson:

- Make a mountain.
- Make two "stone" tablets and etch words on them.
- Make an earring.
- Flatten the earring. Shape it into a calf.
- Throw down the tablets. Tear them into pieces.
- Roll the calf between your hands.
Tear it into tiny pieces and then scatter them.
- Form two new tablets and etch words on them.
