

NEHEMIAH 12:27-47

Introduction

Crack open the champagne, Nehemiah! The walls of Jerusalem have been rebuilt in record time! You might even expect an, "I'm going to Disney World!" from Nehemiah. Not exactly. Nehemiah recalls what took place at the dedication of the city walls and in the days that followed. Let's look at that dedication day.

Nehemiah 12:27-43

1. Who did Nehemiah first call upon to assist in the dedication of Jerusalem's wall?

2. Who joined the choirs on top of the walls?

3. Describe the movements of the two choirs and leaders on top of the wall.

4. Who led the processions?

5. What did people do once they arrived at the temple?

Nehemiah 12:44-47

6. In what different ways did God's people respond to what the Lord had done and promised to do for them?
