WEEKLY NEWS ❖ September 27, 2020

❖ IN THE LORD'S HOUSE TODAY ❖

WELCOME! We are happy that you are worshipping with us. As Psalm 122:1 says, "I was glad when they said to me, 'Let us go to the house of the Lord!'" Here in the Lord's House our Lord Jesus Christ is truly present in His Word and Sacrament to give us His gifts of forgiveness, life, and salvation. We continue to follow appropriate social distancing and hygienic protocols as noted in the service folder. The Sunday Divine Service is also being live-streamed on Hope's Facebook page and the service folder (bulletin) may be accessed here. "Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good, for his steadfast love endures forever" (Psalm 136:1).

❖ THE WORD FOR TODAY ❖

Today we celebrate the Festival of St. Michael and All Angels. At this time of year we notice the daylight hours getting shorter and the hours of night getting longer. For us Christians this "conflict" in nature is a reflection of the more critical spiritual conflict. There is a great battle going on in the world: the conflict between God's kingdom and the kingdom of darkness.

In Daniel 10 a prince of the Jewish nation – Michael, by name – fought against the prince of Persia and then the prince of Greece. He was aided and strengthened by an angel from God. This same Michael is mentioned in Daniel 12. In Jude 9 we read of "Michael the archangel" who fights against the devil. This is the Michael mentioned in Revelation 12 where he and his angel army battle against the dragon (Satan) and his dark angels. This cosmic battle is won and decided, however, "by the blood of the Lamb," that is, Jesus Christ and Him crucified and risen, "and by the word of their testimony," that is, the Christian Gospel message. Hebrews 1:14 says that angels are "ministering spirits sent forth to minister for those who will inherit salvation." In Matthew 18 Jesus reminds us of our place in God's kingdom as children who trust Him for our very protection. No matter how young or old, no matter how seasoned or "inexperienced," all Christians are the "little ones" who receive life and protection from our Lord Jesus Christ. What a privilege to be "little ones" in God's kingdom, "for I say to you that in heaven their angels always see the face of My Father who is in heaven."

❖ THE MUSIC FOR TODAY ❖

Today we celebrate the feast of St. Michael and All Angels. This feast focuses our hearts and minds on the work of God's heavenly messengers, especially that of Michael the archangel. Our Hymn of the Day tells of the heavenly battle between Michael and the ancient serpent, or dragon, which results in Satan being banished from heaven. Lest the story end there, we continue singing of Jesus' final defeat of Satan for our salvation. Stars of the Morning, So Gloriously Bright (LSB 520), a text from the 9th century, gives us a glimpse into the softer side of the angels' work, that of ministering to the helpless, poor, and needy.

❖ PREPARING FOR WORSHIP ❖

- PREPARE to receive the Lord's Supper by reviewing "Christian Questions and Their Answers" beginning on 329 in the front part of Lutheran Service Book.
- REFLECT on Psalm 91 in the front part of Lutheran Service Book.
- PONDER today's Hymn of the Day, LSB 521, "Christ, the Lord of Hosts, Unshaken."

HOLY COMMUNION is celebrated at each Sunday morning Divine Service, with both chalice and individual cup offered. Members of congregations of The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod may partake of the Sacrament trusting that in this Holy Meal the Lord Jesus Christ is present and gives His Body and Blood for our forgiveness, life, and salvation. Guests are asked to speak with the pastor prior to communing. Those who have a health concern with the alcohol in the cup are asked to speak with the pastor. If you are taking Communion, please fill out the attendance card by marking an "X" in the box by the names of those communing, and hand the card to an usher as you go to the Lord's Table.
