THE NATIVITY OF ST. JOHN THE BAPTIST, JUNE 24:

The celebration of the birthday of the last prophet of the Old Testament is one of the earliest festivals in the calendar of the church. Church father St.

Augustine (4th ca.) relates the words of John about Jesus, He must increase, but I must decrease, to the shortening of the days after summer solstice since after the birthday of Jesus and the winter solstice, the days become longer.
