

Immanuel LYF Newsletter

MAY 2020

All,

I hope this time of isolation and family time has been a blessing to you. While things may be hard in other aspects of your life, this is a great opportunity to spend time with God and dig into the love He has for you. I want to give you a word of encouragement from Christ himself.

John 14:27 Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. Not as the world gives do I give to you. Let not your hearts be troubled, neither let them be afraid.

Christ is speaking of the peace secured through his death and resurrection. The peace He is telling the disciples about here is the same peace He has given to us. So while "peace" in the worldly sense may not seem attainable in these present times, the peace that God has given to you is. The Bible says Christ, himself, is our peace. What better way to know peace than to know Christ. I encourage you to study the Bible, worship and pray as a family, and have open discussions about God and what He is doing in your life.

Please, know that I am praying for each of you and I look forward to the day when we can worship together again.

- Andy
