

SERMON SUMMARY

Day of Pentecost—Acts 2:16-21

Name: _____

May 31, 2020

Our text is the start of something big, and it happens on the festival of _____.

That means the feast was celebrated on the _____ day—that's the "Pente" in Pentecost.

So the Lord commanded Passover and Pentecost so that His people might _____ His deliverance and provision.

In other words: because Christ has died and Christ is risen from the dead, it is time for the apostles to _____ the seed of His Word.

He is there to testify of _____ to all who will hear, by means of His holy Word.

It is also the beginning of the _____.

This prophecy is all about _____—God present on earth in His life, His death and resurrection, and the arrival of the Holy Spirit.

Because Christ has died and risen again, and because the _____ has come, God's plan for man's redemption is complete.

That makes this a matter of urgency: what do you do to make sure that you are _____ for the great and glorious day of the Lord when He comes again in glory to _____ the living and the dead?

The truth is that there is _____ they can do that could make up for it.

So instead, says Peter, _____. Turn from sin and works-righteousness, and acknowledge your need for grace.

Scripture declares again and again that we _____ make up for our sins by what we do.

They continued to nurture the life they'd received by _____ the Word, for God gives life in His Word.
