

SERMON SUMMARY

Name: _____

The Second Sunday after Pentecost—Matthew 9:35-10:8

June 14, 2020

So the Lord has _____ on them, as they are weary and scattered, sick and heavily-burdened.

He calls the twelve to Himself. He gives them _____ over unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to heal all kinds of sickness and all kinds of disease.

Jesus could do this so many other _____.

But instead, He picks twelve men to _____ and tell.

They go, and they go knowing two things: they've been _____ to, and they've been sent.

When the disciples heal the sick, the sick are _____.

Why? Because it's not _____ doing it.

That's what He sent them to do. That's what He gave them to do. _____ they have received. Now they freely give.

In His wisdom, with a world full of _____ and wandering sheep, God has chosen to spread His kingdom by having _____ human beings speak His Word.

every Christian, tempted by sin and exhibiting all sorts of weaknesses, has the privilege of _____ that Word about Jesus to others.

It is not the people. It's the _____. The Lord Jesus Christ, the Word made flesh, is present by His _____:

It's the Word that's _____—not the person speaking it.

We are easily conditioned to judge the quality of all things by how well they hold our _____ without our even trying to concentrate.

Where the Word is, _____ is. Where Jesus is, there is forgiveness and life.

The third danger is the lazy Old Adam's notion that the speaking of the _____ is best left to professionals.

each believer has the _____ of telling of the hope they have in Christ.

That's how the Lord spreads His kingdom on earth: He sends out His _____.

But as you speak His Word, rejoice most of all in this: _____ first speaks it to you. As the Gospel is spoken, it speaks and delivers _____.
