

SERMON SUMMARY

Name: _____

Nineteenth Sunday after Pentecost – Matthew 22:1-14

October 11, 2020

The king has arranged a marriage for his son, and he is sparing no _____ for the festivities.

But the guests don't want to _____.

Yet some decline the invitation, saying things like they must keep _____ on the farm or at the business.

Rather than say no to the servants, some seize them, treat them terribly and _____ them.

The servants _____ out and find whoever they can.

Whoever receives his invitation and comes to the wedding receives _____, food and drink by the king's doing.

Remember, this parable is about the _____ of heaven.

Here is your reason to rejoice, today and always: the Lord calls _____ to that marriage supper.

He has done _____ that is necessary to prepare it.

Time and time again, the people _____ the invitation.

The Lord still faithfully _____ out His messengers today: not just to Israel, but to all nations.

When the Lord invites you to the wedding, He _____ you all the good things.

By His Word, He gives you the _____ to believe and thus He transforms you into His own.

Therefore, do no sin by seeking to wear you _____ clothes to the wedding.

Old Adam will always tempt you to believe heaven is your because you have _____ enough good.

God loves you so much that you are the _____ of His Son, and He has cleansed and prepared you, made you pure and holy by Christ's own holy, precious _____, and His bitter suffering and death.

Questions

1. Why do some reject God's invitation?
2. What good things does God give you when He invites You to the Wedding Feast?
3. What is the significance of the Wedding Clothes in this parable? What do we mean that we should not wear our own clothes to God's Wedding Feast?
4. Any questions or comments about this sermon?