

IMMANUEL LUTHERAN CHURCH

December 4, 2019

Offering will be received at both doors

FOR YOU AND ALL THE WORLD

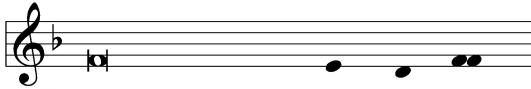

The good news of Christ's birth is both universal and personal. The angel proclaims that Christ's birth is "good news of great joy . . . for all the people" (Luke 2:10). The heavenly host builds upon that by declaring that Christ's advent brings "peace among men" to make it known that Christ comes to save all.

Even as the news is universally good for all people, it is also news delivered personally to the shepherds—"for unto you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is Christ the Lord" (Luke 2:11). What is for all people is most certainly "for you" because you are part of all people. What do you find in Christ? Peace! He brings peace between you and the Father. You who are alienated from the Father by sin are now brought near to the Father in His Son. You have peace with Him. And so you sing with the heavenly host:

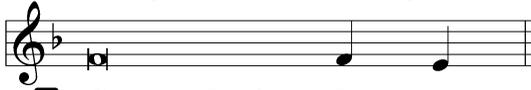

Joy, great joy and tidings glad we bring from heav'n resounding,
For you, for you and all the world abounding.

Psalm 141 (I - Men, II - Women)

Psalm 141:1-4, 8

Let my prayer rise be - fore You as in - cense,
 the lift - ing up of my hands as the eve - ning sac - ri - fice.
 O Lord, I call to You; come to me quick - ly; hear my voice when I cry to You. Let my prayer rise be - fore You as in - cense,

the lift-ing up of my hands as the eve-ning sac-ri-fice.

II Set a watch be-fore my mouth, O Lord, and guard the door of my lips.

I Let not my heart in-cline to an-y e-vil thing;

let me not be oc-cu-pied in wick-ed-ness with e-vil-do-ers.

II But my eyes are turned to You, O God; in You I take ref-uge.

Strip me not of my life. C Glo-ry be to the Fa-ther and to the Son and to the Ho-ly Spir-it; as it was in the be-gin-ning, is now, and will be for-ev-er. A-men.

Let my prayer rise be-fore You as in-cense,

the lift-ing up of my hands as the eve-ning sac-ri-fice.

L Let us pray.

Let the incense of our repentant prayer ascend before You, O Lord, and let Your loving-kindness descend on us that, with purified minds, we may sing Your praises with the Church on earth and the whole heavenly host and may glorify You forever.

C Amen.

Psalm

Psalm 24

L The earth is the LORD's and the fullness thereof,*

the world and those who dwell therein,

C for He has founded it upon the seas* and established it upon the rivers.

L Who shall ascend the hill of the LORD?* And who shall stand in His holy place?

C He who has clean hands and a pure heart,* who does not lift up his soul to what is false and does not swear deceitfully.

L He will receive blessing from the LORD* and righteousness from the God of his salvation.

C Such is the generation of those who seek Him,* who seek the face of the God of Jacob.

L Lift up your heads, O gates! And be lifted up, O ancient doors,* that the King of glory may come in.

C Who is this King of glory?* The LORD, strong and mighty, the LORD, mighty in battle!

L Lift up your heads, O gates! And lift them up, O ancient doors,* that the King of glory may come in.

C Who is this King of glory?* The LORD of hosts, He is the King of glory!

C Glory be to the Father and to the Son* and to the Holy Spirit; as it was in the beginning,* is now, and will be forever. Amen.

Readings

Old Testament Reading:

Genesis 12:1–3

- L A reading from Genesis, the twelfth chapter.

Now the LORD said to Abram, “Go from your country and your kindred and your father’s house to the land that I will show you. And I will make of you a great nation, and I will bless you and make your name great, so that you will be a blessing. I will bless those who bless you, and him who dishonors you I will curse, and in you all the families of the earth shall be blessed.”

- L O Lord, have mercy on us.
- C Thanks be to God.

Epistle:

1 John 4:9–14

L A reading from First John, the fourth chapter.

In this the love of God was made manifest among us, that God sent his only Son into the world, so that we might live through him. In this is love, not that we have loved God but that he loved us and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins. Beloved, if God so loved us, we also ought to love one another. No one has ever seen God; if we love one another, God abides in us and his love is perfected in us.

By this we know that we abide in him and he in us, because he has given us of his Spirit. And we have seen and testify that the Father has sent his Son to be the Savior of the world.

L O Lord, have mercy on us.

C Thanks be to God.

Holy Gospel:

Luke 2:8–20

L A reading from Luke, the second chapter.

And in the same region there were shepherds out in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night. And an angel of the Lord appeared to them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were filled with fear. And the angel said to them, “Fear not, for behold, I bring you good news of a great joy that will be for all the people. For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is Christ the Lord. And this will be a sign for you: you will find a baby wrapped in swaddling cloths and lying in a manger.” And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God and saying,

“Glory to God in the highest,
and on earth peace among those with whom he is pleased!”

When the angels went away from them into heaven, the shepherds said to one another, “Let us go over to Bethlehem and see this thing that has happened, which the Lord has made known to us.” And they went with haste and found Mary and Joseph, and the baby lying in a manger. And when they saw it, they made known the saying that had been told them concerning this child. And all who heard it wondered at what the shepherds told them. But Mary treasured up all these things, pondering them in her heart. And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all they had heard and seen, as it had been told them.

L O Lord, have mercy on us.

C Thanks be to God.

L In many and various ways, God spoke to His people of old by the prophets.

C But now in these last days, He has spoken to us by His Son.

Collect For Peace

- L O God, from whom come all holy desires, all good counsels, and all just works, give to us,
Your servants, that peace which the world cannot give, that our hearts may be set to obey
Your commandments and also that we, being defended from the fear of our enemies, may live in peace and quietness; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.
- C Amen.

Lord's Prayer

- L Taught by our Lord and trusting His promises, we are bold to pray:
- C Our Father who art in heaven,
hallowed be Thy name,
Thy kingdom come,
Thy will be done on earth
as it is in heaven;
give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our trespasses
as we forgive those

who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For Thine is the kingdom
and the power and the glory
forever and ever. Amen.
