Worship Continues With Creative Solutions by Sarah Bechtel

As Immanuel and other churches have been forced to cancel services, Pastor Schellhas looked for ways to keep us connected and in the Word. He found the solution with a combination of “home videos” – first creating a daily vlog (video log) that is posted on Facebook, YouTube, and our website.

Next was a mid-week Lenten service for March 18th he created by recording a message and also adding music performed by the Schellhas family.

A weekend worship service was a bigger challenge. Pastor enlisted the help of Immanuel members, and the result was a wonderfully inspiring service for March 21st and 22nd we could watch in our homes and still feel connected to our fellow members. The weekend service consisted of liturgy and message by Pastor, music by the Schellhas family, and readings and prayers by members. What a beautiful combination!

If you have missed any of these vlogs or services, you can find them in multiple places:

- www.immanuelmokena.org – Go to Connect, Select Faith@Home
- Facebook – Follow us @ImmanuelMokena
- YouTube – Our channel is Immanuel Lutheran Mokena (you can subscribe to the channel to be notified when new videos are posted)

Thank you to Pastor, the Schellhas family, and the many members who have contributed to these videos.

Until we can again worship together physically, please take advantage of these resources to nourish your faith during this difficult time. (See page 4 for Special Holy Week Schedule)

CONVERSATION STARTERS FROM THE PASTOR

Adaptive Immigrants

I don't think I'm understating the point that American life has had to adopt a great number of adaptations in the past couple of weeks. A disease as quickly-spreading as COVID-19 has put a halt to many practices and patterns that we often take for granted. While going to see family and friends used to be a harmless and welcome activity, it comes now with an added layer of risk and concern. If you've been paying attention to the world from whatever view you have, it's pretty clear that people are still trying to be relationally present with one another, and sometimes in ways they didn't used to be.

The truth is that God created us to be relational creatures, to have relationships both with Him and with one another. And while we all have different levels of interest in social interaction, it's pretty hard to function as a human without other people. We need one another. If that means we have to adapt to survive, not just to provide for our spiritual needs but also our mental, emotional, and spiritual ones, we'll do what we need to do.

God made us to be adaptable creatures. Scripture has some beautiful examples of this. Consider the children of Israel and their journey from Caanan (while Jacob was still alive) to Egypt to the Exodus to the wilderness wanderings to the Promised Land. This entailed a high level of adaptation to circumstances, and it wasn't always pleasant. But God was faithful. He sustained and delivered His people.

And how about the Early Church? Gathered in Jerusalem for Pentecost, the followers of Jesus exploded in numbers in the wake of the Spirit falling on the disciples. But not too long after, that great gathering of Jesus-followers were persecuted right out of a place of sweetness, family, and connection. God pushed them into new places, and wherever they went (Judea, Samaria, the ends of the Earth - Acts 1:8) the great good news of Jesus' death and resurrection power went with them. Even the words they used had to adapt to linguistic and cultural barriers, and that work continues even to this day through the work of groups like Lutheran Bible Translators.

Now, we must be careful not to allow ourselves to lose our "saltiness" and "lightness." Jesus warns us of this in Matthew 5:13-16 in the Sermon on the Mount. If salt has no taste, it has no worth. A light covered by a bowl loses its ability to affect the surrounding space with illumination. So we should not adapt to every whim of culture...far from it! We should stand out in the way that we cling to the timeless truths of God's Word that cross cultural and geographic boundaries. Sin is sin. We shouldn't accept every cultural idea that flies in the face of what God says. But at the same time, how we express that truth will communicate to those around us if the love of God is truly a part of who we are. Ask anyone who's been blinded by a bright bathroom light after just waking up, or a person who's been served a savory dish that amounts to not much more than a salt lick what they think of light or salt in excess, and I guarantee you'll get a negative reaction.

Immigrants have to be adaptable. The best definition of an immigrant that I've been able to formulate for myself is "a group of people on a journey, looking for a home." Now, stripping away all of the cultural and legal commentary we have about the nature of immigration in our country, I think this idea has much to tell us about where we're going as a church. Like the children of Israel in the desert, we're on a journey. Like the Christian families in Jerusalem who fled the persecution there with the few meager things they could carry in order to find a new life in a place where the Gospel could thrive, we're in search of a home. And even when we do discover the sweetness of something that looks and feels like our best idea of "home" in this life, it's still not perfect. It still lacks...something. Even when we tweak our surroundings to within an iota of perfection, it's never going to be quite right. The fact is, we will never find our true Home until our journey of this life ends with a joyous homecoming into the Household of our Father, the King. Only in His presence will be truly, completely, and finally HOME.

So, the journey continues! We're not home yet...but our Father has given us a beacon to follow in the imitable example of His Son, Jesus. His Spirit leads and guides us from the inside, making us long for our final rest in the halls of our Father, and pushing us to keep moving, keep immigrating, keep seeking the Kingdom even now. Will we have to adapt to continue this missional journey? Absolutely! Is God teaching us what it means to be the Church, scattered? I think so, even though we long for the sweetness of being together. Is He training us to be faithful in our Table spaces as much as our Temple spaces, and reminding us that we are temples ourselves of His Spirit? He is! Is this temporary hardship a catalyst for growth in the aftermath? I fully trust God's plan to use this for His glory and our good, using us to be salt and light in new and unexpected ways.

For now, I pray you are well, that God continues to provide for all of your needs, and that you still have opportunities to love people like Jesus. Even though you're probably stuck in one spot for the foreseeable future, don't forget...

Adventure is out there!

Spring Food Drive (Revised Edition)

by Sarah Bechtel

The Board of Stewardship had planned to collect non-perishable items for the Frankfort Township Food Pantry in March. With the unexpected interruption to those plans, we are encouraging members to still support your local food pantry.

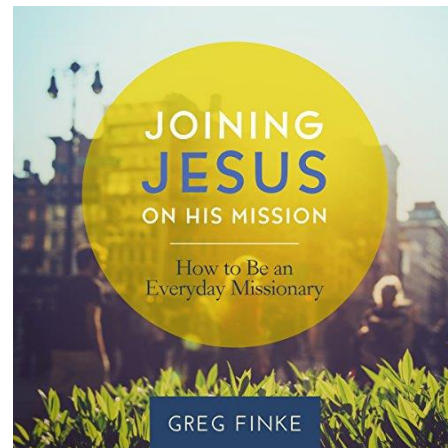

The Frankfort Township Food Pantry has placed a shopping cart outside so that donors can simply drive by and drop off donations without coming into the building. The food pantry is located on the lower level of the Frankfort Township building at 11000 W. Lincoln Highway.

The New Lenox Township Food Pantry is accepting financial donations via their website. Visit newlenox.org and look for the Food Pantry Donate button on the left side of the home page.

With the huge increase in unemployment, more and more people will be relying on community resources – we thank you for any assistance you can provide.

Joining Jesus Study - It's Not to Late!

by Sarah Bechtel

Small groups were formed back in February for the study of the book, Joining Jesus. The small group study also includes videos to assist in understanding and discussing the points made in each chapter. Since the small groups are no longer able to meet in person, Pastor received permission to add the videos to the Immanuel website. However, the videos can only be accessed if you are logged into the website. (See the Keep in Touch article for details on logging in.) You may find yourself at home with your very own small group. Evening activities have been cancelled, college students have returned home, etc. It isn't too late to start your own study of this book! The office still has several copies of Joining Jesus available – the books are $12 each. Contact the office if you would like to purchase one and a "contactless" transfer will be arranged. Once you have a website login, you will also be able to access the videos. You will find them under the Connect menu.

Keep in Touch by Sarah Bechtel

As we "stay at home" you are certainly wondering how other members of the Immanuel family are doing. Did you know you can find contact information for Immanuel members on our website?

BUT, you have to be logged into the website in order to see the Member Directory. (That way member information is not available to the public.) Do you have a website login? Limanowski Greenhouse Brings New Life in Mokena by Lyn Thorne

Thanks to the Limanowski Family for sharing their greenhouse updates. It is so nice to see the brilliant colors that are already in progress. Fortunately for us, their greenhouse opens for us on May 1st. If you have never been there, you will want to go. They live right on 187th St in Mokena. Their address is 9909 187th St but it is somewhat hard to find. From 104th St. you will turn east and go all the way down until the road almost ends and you will see a driveway with a "Honey for Sale" sign. Turn in there and drive back to the greenhouse.

Lifting the Community Up!

by Nicolette Fitzpatrick

Lyn Krohse Thorne ► Mokena Moms ...

Immanuel Lutheran had a large stockpile of lessons and craft kits left over so we have put 72 goodie bags together to give your kids some projects to work on. They are free and in a bin outside our office door at 10731 W LaPorte Rd. Please only take what you need and please do not break up the kits. We hope you find them helpful.

Lyn Thorne came up with a solution for help local parents to help their children get used to this new normal of being cooped up at home. She found a hodge podge of leftover crafts and Sunday School lessons and put together 72 goodie bags. Lyn took to social media telling parents to come and pick up a few as many as they needed from a tote outside of the church office entrance.

Is there something that your family or friends are doing in the community that you would like to share? Send an email message and photo to office@immanuelmokena.org so we can share your story in next month's newsletter!

Peter...From Fisherman to Fisher

of Men

by Barb Belanski

The Thursday morning Women's Bible study recently completed "Overflowing Abundance – a Bible Study on Jesus Feeding the Five Thousand". We fell in love with Donna Pyle, the author of the DVD study and her down-to-earth style which encouraged us to dig into Scripture with enthusiasm and expectation. It is with the same vigor that we look forward to our next DVD study based on the life and ministry of Peter: "Peter...from Fisherman to Fisher of Men." Donna Pyle has written the study to impact our spiritual walk and to grow our faith by sharing how God used the Gospel to reveal Peter's brokenness, failures, struggles, and triumphs. He is very relatable!! He made huge mistakes but remained open to listen, learn, lean in, and love in new and challenging ways.

Our study will seek to answer the following questions:

- Where did Peter come from?
- What did Peter's life look like before Jesus entered the scene?
- How did Peter become one of Jesus' inner circle among the twelve disciples?
- What was his calling given by Jesus?
- What were Peter's strengths and weaknesses as a disciple?
- What was Peter inspired to teach and write that applies to our Christian walk today?

Sound interesting? As soon as we're able to meet again, you are invited to join us!! We meet on the second and fourth Thursday of the month at 9:15 a.m. Looking forward studying with you and SEEING you again SOON!!!

Christian Symbol: Nails

Nails symbolize Jesus' passion and suffering because they were used at his Crucifixion. They are often depicted in groups of three because two nails were used to secure Jesus' hands, and a third was used to secure his feet. Three nails are also used to identify Jesus as a member of the Holy Trinity.

April 5, 2020 – Palm Sunday/Sunday of the Passion

Psalm 118:19-29; John 12:12-19; Matthew 27:11-66

“Palms to Passion” - Sermon Text: Philippians 2:8b - Rev. Shayne Jonker

Holy Week begins on the road from Jericho to Jerusalem. Jesus procures a donkey and His disciples hail Him with palm branches. They make a royal highway for Him with their coats and shout, “Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord!” The mood, however, shifts quickly from palms to passion, from triumph to crucifixion. This is no ordinary King. He dies for His people and kingdom. Never has the world seen such a King as this one.

April 12, 2020 – The Resurrection of Our Lord/Easter Day

Psalm 16; 1 Corinthians 15:1-11; John 20:1-18

“Tears of Joy” - Sermon Text: John 20:1-18 - Rev. Paul Shoemaker

When a military mother is unexpectedly greeted by her child returning from deployment, the shock is overwhelming, and she may burst into tears of joy. Mary's tears of sorrow changed into tears of joy when she saw the risen Savior.

April 19, 2020 – Second Sunday of Easter

Psalm 148; 1 Peter 1:3-9; John 20:19-31

“A Genuinely Tested Faith” - Sermon Text: 1 Peter 1:3-9 - Rev. William Mueller

The Apostle Peter reminds us that our faith in Jesus Christ is a genuinely tested faith. This means that through the struggles, various trials, and other griefs that we endure, God is drawing us closer to Jesus. Our faith in Jesus may be tested, but it is genuine!

April 26, 2020 – Third Sunday of Easter

Psalm 116:1-14; 1 Peter 1:17-25; Luke 24:13-35

“Have It GOD'S Way!” - Sermon Text: Luke 24:13-35 - Rev. Dr. Thomas Ahlersmeyer

Does God's gift of faith come from a set menu, or is it served up à la carte? In what ways are we “slow of heart” to believe all that God's Word tells us? In His conversation with two Emmaus-bound disciples, the risen Lord Jesus Christ reveals the challenges and possibilities of a faith humbly determined to Have It GOD'S Way!
