

Proverbs is a book that teaches wisdom for living in a relationship with God. What we also find in Proverbs is that this wisdom points us to Christ as He refers to and lives by the same principles that Solomon and the other authors of Proverbs wrote. It is truly a blessing to have this book which guides us to an understanding of wisdom for life. Today we will consider what it means to live joyfully for the Lord rather than in anger over our own selfish desires.

A Time for Prayer and a Prayer Confessing Our Sins

The Apostles' Creed

All: I believe in God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth.

And in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried. He descended into hell. The third day he rose again from the dead. He ascended into heaven and sits at the right hand of God the Father Almighty. From thence he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy Christian Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

Bible Readings

Psalm 37:1-6

Fret not yourself because of evildoers;

be not envious of wrongdoers!

For they will soon fade like the grass and wither like the green herb.

Trust in the Lord, and do good;

dwell in the land and befriend faithfulness.

Delight yourself in the Lord,

and he will give you the desires of your heart.

Commit your way to the Lord;

trust in him, and he will act.

He will bring forth your righteousness as the light,

and your justice as the noonday.

Proverbs 15:13-18

A glad heart makes a cheerful face,

but by sorrow of heart the spirit is crushed.

The heart of him who has understanding seeks knowledge,

but the mouths of fools feed on folly.

All the days of the afflicted are evil,

but the cheerful of heart has a continual feast.

Better is a little with the fear of the Lord

than great treasure and trouble with it.

Better is a dinner of herbs where love is than a fattened ox and hatred with it.
A hot-tempered man stirs up strife,
but he who is slow to anger quiets contention.

Oh is free indeed
I'm a child of God
Yes I am

Free at last
He has ransomed me
His grace runs deep
While I was a slave to sin
Jesus died for me
Yes He died for me

I'm a child of God
Yes I am

In my Father's house
There's a place for me
I'm a child of God
Yes I am

Gospel ReadingLuke 6:27-36

“But I say to you who hear, Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who abuse you. To one who strikes you on the cheek, offer the other also, and from one who takes away your cloak do not withhold your tunic either. Give to everyone who begs from you, and from one who takes away your goods do not demand them back. And as you wish that others would do to you, do so to them.

“If you love those who love you, what benefit is that to you? For even sinners love those who love them. And if you do good to those who do good to you, what benefit is that to you? For even sinners do the same. And if you lend to those from whom you expect to receive, what credit is that to you? Even sinners lend to sinners, to get back the same amount. But love your enemies, and do good, and lend, expecting nothing in return, and your reward will be great, and you will be sons of the Most High, for he is kind to the ungrateful and the evil. Be merciful, even as your Father is merciful.

Today’s Message

Proverbs – Holy Joy vs. Sinful Anger

The Prayers

The Lord’s Prayer

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever and ever.

Amen
