LIVING LOGOS

News for the members and friends of Living Savior Lutheran Church
Vol. 40, Issue 5, May, 2017

A Note from the Pastor .

May Is Upon Us

Thank you for your patience through the Albrecht Dürer series. As I mentioned in my sermon on April 23rd, I foresee us utilizing three more that belong to the series: 1. The Ascension of our Lord (May 25); 2. The Day of Pentecost (June 4); 3. The Last Judgment (November 26).

As I write this, I am in a small quandary. I am going to propose to the Spiritual Life Board that we add an Ascension Day Service to the calendar this coming month on May 25th, not just because of the Dürer picture that accompanies that day, but because it is a good thing to do – but I don't have their approval yet. The Ascension marks a significant change in the life of the Church and its people. It always falls on a Thursday. So, my proposal will be that we meet at our regular evening time of 7:15pm on Thursday, May 25. It would be appropriate to celebrate that sacrament that evening and it will give us the opportunity to reflect upon the Word of God and the work of the Church. If the Spiritual Life Board observes that it is not in our best interest, we will still have the opportunity to cancel the service.

The month of May has other important events. May 14th is held in high regard in our country as Mother's Day. And while the commandment will not let us honor our mother (and our father) on just one day of the year, we too can certainly reflect upon that which God has given to us through the gift of our parents.

The month of May is also important to us as four young people will participate in the Rite of Confirmation on May 21. It is good for us to know their names: James Freitag, Ryan Gutierrez, Faith Hermann and Serena Spath. A reception will occur between the services that day and as you may have noted in the Parish Notes – we are going to use it as a time to remember our confirmation, bring our copy of our small catechism.

Finally, the month closes with a national day in memory of those who have given their lives for the freedoms we enjoy on a daily basis. It is an opportunity to remember those who currently serve in the armed forces of our country and to pray for our ministry to them from within our church body. Oddly enough, the director of our church body's ministry to those who serve in the armed forces is Rev. Craig Muehler – Retired Navy Captain (also the brother-in-law of my brother Benjamin - it's a small Synod!). Charlotte and I give thanks for your prayers for our son Micah, whom we prayerfully will greet in person on May 6 as he will be given a post-deployment leave.

Rev. Craig Muehler

It seems as though many other things occur in May – will the garden get planted in there somewhere? We entrust ourselves to the Lord and pray for His will to be done among us.

The Mission of Living Savior Lutheran Church:

Alive in Christ, we share the love of Jesus—we serve, care for, support and nourish each other, our community, and the world!

May Into JUNE

At Preschool

It's hard to believe we begin the final month of preschool for the 2016-17 school year, where did the time go! The teachers spent the year telling many Bible stories and especially the good news of Jesus' life: His birth, His many miraculous works, His death and Alleluia! His resurrection, so that we can be forgiven because He loves us!

In May we continue the Easter story to hear how Jesus ascended into Heaven. We will then learn about the work the Holy Spirit did on Pentecost. The last three weeks we will review Bible stories we have learned throughout the school year, including Jesus' miracles, highlights of the Christmas story, creation, and Adam and Eve.

Secular topics this month include the ocean and travel/summer.

Dramatic play will include two things we all like to enjoy during the summer... the beach and camping. Children will explore the beach with blankets for lounging and buckets and shovels for digging in the sand. The last three weeks, children will be able to go camping, complete with a tent, sleeping bag, campfire, and fishing.

We have a few more spots to fill in the afternoon 3's program for 2017-18 school year. Our morning classes; afternoon 4's preschool and Pre-k are full. Do you know of family, friends or neighbors with preschoolers? They need to be (Age 3 by September 1, 2017) who are looking for a wonderful Christian environment to start their child in.

Contact the Church office for more information and a tour.

Thank You!

The staff and I appreciate all the congregation's prayers and your support this past year, through our pie fundraiser and your encouraging words. We always feel so blessed when looking back on another year of joy working with each other, the growth of our preschoolers, and from all the support from our preschool families and congregation. We are blessed to work in such a wonderful environment with these precious children the Lord sends to us.

Have a wonderful summer!

Denice & the Preschool Staff

Easter Afterglow

I know that my Redeemer lives.

Job 19:25

3. He lives to bless me with His love;
He lives to plead for me above;
He lives my hungry soul to feed;
He lives to help in time of need.
4. He lives to grant me rich supply;
He lives to guide me with His eye;
He lives to comfort me when faint;
He lives to hear my soul's complaint.
5. He lives to silence all my fears;
He lives to wipe away my tears;
He lives to calm my troubled heart;
He lives all blessings to impart.
6. He lives, my kind, wise, heav'nly friend;
He lives and loves me to the end;
He lives, and while He lives, I'll sing;
He lives, my Prophet, Priest, and King.
7. He lives and grants me daily breath;
He lives, and I shall conquer death;
He lives my mansion to prepare;
He lives to bring me safely there.
8. He lives, all glory to His name!
He lives, my Jesus, still the same;
Oh, the sweet joy this sentence gives;
I know that my Redeemer lives!

Just a few short days ago, Christians all around the world celebrated Easter—the Festival of the Resurrection of our Lord. I'm sure many of the worship services included the singing of the hymn, I Know that My Redeemer Lives. This great hymn of faith was written by Samuel Medley who lived from 1738 to 1799, but the words to the hymn's title go back much further than that. Surprisingly, the man who is most known for having a great deal of patience, gave this Old Testament declaration of a belief that God would vindicate him in the face of the false accusations brought on him by his friends.

Job 19:25-27:

*I know that my Redeemer lives,
And that in the end he will stand upon the earth.
And after my skin has been destroyed,
Yet in my flesh I will see God;
I myself will see him
With my own eyes—I, and not another.
How my heart yearns within me!*

The resurrection of the dead was not a doctrine that was believed by many of the Old Testament Jews, and is not taught with the same clarity that we see in the New Testament. However, Job is adamant in his belief that his death was not the end of his existence and he would some day see God with his own eyes.

Samuel Medley took the doctrine of redemption and added wonderful words of confidence, comfort, praise, and grace.

Read through the verses of this hymn (or sing them) and look for words that describe God's character and the blessings we receive as we are members of his family. See if you can understand why this song is found in the "Christian Hope" section of the Lutheran Book of Worship.

1. I know that my Redeemer lives!
What comfort this sweet sentence gives!
He lives, he lives, who once was dead;
He lives, my every-living head.
2. He lives triumphant from the grave
He lives eternally to save;
He lives all glorious in the sky;
He lives exalted there on high.

As we bask in the afterglow of Easter, we remember that Jesus' resurrection from the dead is the culmination of His work on earth which guarantees our own resurrection. His shed blood paid the required penalty for sin. All who believe in Him have been redeemed. His resurrection was the ultimate victory over Satan who had determined to keep this from happening. Because Christ lives, we, too have eternal life with Him.

Every Sunday is a celebration of Easter Sunday. In fact the first Easter Sunday—the day of Jesus' resurrection—is the reason we now worship on Sundays instead of the Old Testament Sabbath (Sundown Friday night to sundown Saturday night). Perhaps we should sing this hymn of hope (confidence) more often than once a year during our Easter celebrations as we celebrate the life of blessing we have through our faith in our Savior, Jesus.

LET'S CELEBRATE!

The Living Savior Choir invites you to our annual concert on Sunday, June 4, at 7:00pm. We will be singing anthems that we have sung for Sunday services through this last year plus some surprises. We will also feature several other musicians who will join us.

I am thrilled to direct this group of almost 40 singers whose aim is to touch your heart with a message that you can take home for the following week. So - mark your calendars. Please support your fellow members on June 4th at 7:00pm. Refreshments will be served.

Thank you to the congregation for the amazing level of participation in the recent "Sunday Morning Worship Survey."

The Spiritual Life Board hopes to present a summary of the survey results at the June Voter's Meeting.

To the Community of Living Savior Lutheran Church:

Thank You Note We would like to thank all of you for the support given to our family during the recent and unexpected passing of Hal Hingst. Your condolences, kind words, warm hugs, spirit of serving at his funeral and reception, willingness to raise your voices in song (as he would have wanted), and the stories all of you shared have truly helped us through this difficult time. Words simply cannot express our gratitude nor the level of pride I know he would have had in the people of this church. We have been truly blessed!

Please include the exact title, the author's name and a brief annotation of the content that I can bring to the meeting. We try to include one classic, at least one Christian and a variety of other appropriate books for our group. A couple of my favorites from this past year were The Wright Brothers and Jane Eyre which are books that I would probably not have read except for this group.

You are welcome to join us on the second Saturday of each month from September through May and there is no pressure to share in the discussion. You can just come and enjoy the fellowship and refreshments.

LWML Surpassed the Mission Goal for the 2015-2017 Biennium

The Lutheran Women's Missionary League (LWML) announced the 2015-2017 Mission Goal of $2 million was met and has been surpassed. President Patti Ross shared, "Praise and thanksgiving to God!"

Through Mite Box offerings and generous responses to our Lord's blessings, LWML will be able to fund all 19 grants chosen by the Des Moines Convention in 2015. In humble adoration and with praise to our faithful God, we dedicate these dollars to Him for the work of missionaries and ministries around the world who work to spread the saving message of Christ's love and forgiveness."

Lutheran Women in Mission — The Lutheran Women's Missionary League (LWML) is the official women's auxiliary of The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod. Since 1942, the LWML has focused on affirming each woman's relationship with Christ, encouraging and equipping women to live out their Christian lives in active mission ministries, and to support global missions.

Plan Ahead: The Oregon District will be hosting a women's retreat this fall. Mark your calendar for September 29-October 1. The theme is "Above All Else, Guard Your Heart" and will be held at the Macleay Christian Retreat Center just east of Salem. Fifteen years ago, Community Warehouse began with a clear intention: to provide household goods and furnishings to local families in need, so they could turn empty housing into homes. With each day, it is better understood how significant furnishings are in the lives of families and children. Community Warehouse helps people create homes that nourish dignity and encourage empowered, self-sufficient community members.

Furniture is their currency, but what Community Warehouse really provides is happiness, housing security, stress relief, and improved quality of life for our neighbors in need.

Community Warehouse uses resources that already exist in our community. The answer to the problem of empty housing is here, circulating through our homes. They can redistribute furnishings and housewares that each of us have in our own homes.

If you have useable used items in your home that you would like to donate, please drop them into the blue Community Warehouse drop bag in the entrance into the fellowship hall or drop off your item at:

Give thanks. Give life.

Of the over 118,000 Americans waiting for a lifesaving organ transplant, more than 3,000 live in the Pacific Northwest. Not all will receive their transplant in time because of a growing shortage of living and deceased organ donors.

Stephen Ministers were privileged to have David Rackliffe, member of Living Savior, speak to us about his kidney transplants so that we might have a better idea of the challenges connected with the process.

Donation saves lives, but donation isn't just about organs! Cornea donation restores sight to thousands every year. A single tissue donor can touch over 50 lives – healing a burn victim, saving life a newborn with congenital heart defects, replacing tumorous bones, and more.

SUPPORT GROUP AT LIVING SAVIOR
