

Working for His Glory

Opening Devotion

... whatever you do, do all to the glory of God (1 Corinthians 10:31b).

Do you remember receiving your first paycheck? Maybe it was received for lawn mowing, snow shoveling, or babysitting. That money was so special some have framed the first dollar ever made!

It is exciting to be chosen for a new job. From flipping burgers to fixing computers, from grocery bagger to store owner, from mail clerk to director of marketing, each job is special. For some, a first job continues until retirement. Others change jobs and careers in their search for fulfilling work. Some use their skills in a high-rise office and some in the family home.

God has given us the talents that we use in our work. Each person's skill set may be different, but the Creator of our gifts wants us to do all to the glory of God. When we give our best at our job, we are honoring the Lord of our salvation and life, and can give witness to our Savior Jesus Christ who gave His all for us on the cross of Calvary. No matter the nature of our job, we can perform it for His glory and with the strength He provides.

Prayer: Giver of all things, we thank and praise you for current employment. May what we do give glory to You. In Jesus' name. Amen.

Working for His Glory
Mustard Seed: Everyday Celebrations, 21/28
Written by Elaine Bickel and Jan Struck
Published by Lutheran Women's Missionary League, ©2015
Adapted by CREC, 2017