Participants were from the zone hosting the next district convention and were eager to learn more about LWML and how to better communicate.

Describe your insights from this session (your observations, attendee's understanding and recognition of the importance of information shared, your thoughts on better methods of reaching more women for Christ): We need to personally invite and stress the benefits of this training to get more women to invest their time. Very good information on applying for mission grants and this should result in more applications for next district convention! Spent time explaining how to find resources on website. Needed adapter for laptop for PowerPoint. Thank goodness the church secretary had one.

Determine how these insights may impact your approach to future sessions and develop and share any necessary changes or additions here: Good PR is important. Training more women will result in more confidence, enthusiasm, and better relationships, resulting in sharing Jesus with more people. We will ask zone presidents to call or email local presidents or contacts and invite them to attend and bring others. Will make sure all equipment is available and working as we go forward.

Did you use the materials from AOL 2018? Yes Please specify which presentation materials you used:

Presentation included materials from general session about speakers and communication, and break outs on mission grants, resources, and reaching out. Easy to download documents and print as needed.

Did you use any supplemental items or presentation materials?

Used additional devotion and prayers from 2017 reSOURCEs.

Did the presentations accomplish your event goals? Yes Please explain

The evaluation forms for the event showed comments and indicated that presentations and information sessions were beneficial to those attending.

What portion of the event did your women find most meaningful?

Mission grant session was extremely helpful for future grant proposal submissions. Many expressed how easy it was to download, print, and use devotions and Bible studies.

Based on responses from this event, what else could AOL 2018 have provided that would have been useful? How about just coming to each district for training?! Ha!

Thank you for helping to mentor zone and local women in your district! God will bless your efforts to His glory. We pray that those attending these events will enthusiastically continue to tell the next generation about the work of the LWML as it globally proclaims the Good News of salvation in Jesus Christ.
