

CAMP Insta Friends

All child/youth activities will be held Friday, June 21, and Saturday, June 22, from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Children, whose parents or other adults are attending the 2019 Convention, may attend one of four age group activities:

1. Nursery and Child Care

(6 months–4 years)

Located at the Mobile Convention Center, children will participate in age-appropriate activities. Lunch is included in the daily rate for children one year or older. Parents must provide food for children younger than one year old.

2. Primary (ages 5–8) and

Intermediate (ages 9–12) Program

Located at the Mobile Convention Center, children will participate in a variety of age-appropriate activities (art, Bible stories, games, sing-a-longs, etc.) at their own pace. Children will also participate in two chaperoned field trips: Friday to the Gulf Coast Exploreum Science Center and Saturday to the History Museum of Mobile and Fort Condé. Admission and lunch are included in the cost.

3. High School (ages 13–17) Program

Located at the Mobile Convention Center, youth will participate in a variety of age-appropriate activities (crafts, Bible stories, games, sing-a-longs, etc.). Youth will participate in two exciting servant events and two chaperoned field trips: Friday, they will work at Goodwill/Easterseals in a Kaleidoscope Carnival with handicapped challenged adults and enjoy an afternoon at the GulfQuest National Maritime Museum. Saturday they will again work at the Goodwill/Easterseals in the Environmental/Recycling Program and then enjoy an afternoon at bowling. Admission and lunch are included in the cost.

Transportation to the field trips and servant events will be provided by coach buses at no additional cost.

Registration Deadline: Postmarked by May 20, 2019

Return this Child Care/Youth Activities registration form with your Convention Registration Form—Part 1. Total payment must be included on line 7 of the Convention Registration Form—Part 1, page M. NO on-site registration for Child Care/Youth Activities Camp Insta Friends.
