

By Sheila Lutz

Heavenly Father,

I've so much to learn, but I also have so much to give. I have so much to share, but I also have so much yet to be experienced. I come to You to ask You to help keep my path blameless and to guard my words according to the teachings of Your Word.

> I have stored up Your Word in my heart and wish to share it with many I meet, but I know that first I must seek You with my whole heart — I must seek Your face and not Your hand — Your presence and not just Your gifts. I want to seek Your will and not my own.

Like the young men, Joseph and David, You have blessed me with so many gifts, but like them, I must wait for Your timing to use my blessings. The time may be while I'm young, like Timothy, or the time may come many years later, as it did for Sarah and Abraham.

I have been a student of Your Word as Saul was in his youth. Teach me when I misuse it for my own purposes. I thank You for the forgiveness You grant through my Savior, and I ask You to continue to light my path as You did when You led Paul to leave behind his Saul ways.

In this wonderful > time of my life, I come to

You in prayer

this day.

Like Esther, have You created me for such a time as this — right now? Like young Jeremiah, I know You formed me for Your purpose — great or small.

I need not be afraid of my youth. I need not be overwhelmed by life ahead. Like Ruth, I will rely on You and mentors You may send me. I will rely on Your power as my God as I learn and share when I go where You want me to go.

With the Psalmists, when I'm in confusion or pain, I will praise You, worship You, and do good with the blessings You give me. Thank You for my life.

Blessed are You, O God, Giver of all gifts, for You gift me for Your good purpose for my life. I will use them to bless others.

I will fix my eyes on You. I will share Your story and Your love and Your glory with those in my life, both now and in times I've yet to see. I will delight in You, my Father, and walk in Your ways.

All Praise and Honor be to You, for You are my God, forevermore.

Amen and Amen! Q