

*Draw us to Thee, For then shall we Walk in Thy steps forever
And hasten on Where Thou art gone
To be with Thee, dear Savior (Lutheran Service Book, Hymn 701, Stanza 1).*

Dear _____

In the joys and struggles you face this week, may Christ draw you close to Himself through His Word. My prayer for you is that you would be reminded today that Jesus has drawn you to Himself and you rest securely in His loving hands.

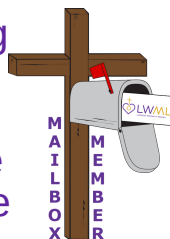

In Christian Love: _____

Train up a child in the way he should go; even when he is old he will not depart from it (Proverbs 22:6).

Dear sister, I am so blessed to watch as you lovingly parent your child. I'm sure it's not easy, but your love shines forth in everything you do. Your child is watching you – and they are seeing a great role model of Christian love. Thank you for making parenting your "profession" – one where you guide, support, and encourage your child each and every day.

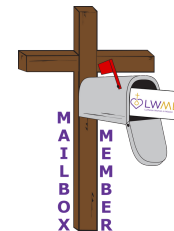

With Love: _____

Two are better than one, because they have a good return for their labor: If either of them falls down, one can help the other up (Ecclesiastes 4:9—10a NIV).

It's been a struggle lately, hasn't it friend? But two are better than one. I'm here to share the load. Please let me be there for you and remember – our loving Savior Jesus Christ has got this!

With Love: _____

*But I trust in you, O LORD; I say,
"You are my God." My times are in your hand; ... (Psalm 31:14—15a).*

Dear friend, there might be challenges ahead for you, but we both know who has your back. Trusting in the benevolence of our Lord and Savior, I'm lifting you up in prayer this week.
