

God's Time

By Miriam Neumann

Let us all pray: Heavenly Father, Jesus has paid for my sins and You have promised to always be with me. My soul praises You. When times are dark and my way is treacherous, You guide and protect me. I praise You for Your love and faithfulness. Help me share my praise with others so they may also know You as their Lord and Savior. In Jesus' name. Amen.¹

How would you define or describe time? _____

What do we know about it from Genesis 1:3-5? _____

Leader: Time — something that cannot be contained. It can be measured in seconds, minutes, hours, days, weeks, months, years, decades, centuries, and even millenniums. It just keeps going and going. Sometimes we don't have enough of it and other times too much. Once gone, we can never get it back. We talk about making up for lost time, but that means cramming the many things that we did not complete into a short period of time. Though sometimes it seems like time flies, an hour is an hour. What we do with it determines how much we accomplish. For example, when recovering from illness or surgery, time doesn't go by quickly enough as we are eager to get back to our regular routines. Other times, we get so involved that we realize suddenly a lot of time has gone by. Always, God is in control.

Reader 1: Sometimes we may be afflicted by a chronic condition — pain that won't go away, or an illness that is hard to cure. We need to be reminded, as did Paul in 2 Corinthians 12:7-10, my grace is sufficient for you ... Why did Paul need to hear this? _____

How do we know that it plagued him? _____

God's reply was: _____

What was Paul's realization? _____

If we think we are strong, we may soon depend on ourselves, but when we recognize our weaknesses we also realize our need to depend on Christ, Who gives us strength.

All pray: Lord, help me remember that You are leading me each day. Through Your Word and Sacraments, give me the strength I need to accomplish Your purpose. Amen.

Sing: "All Praise to Thee, My God, This Night,"² verse 1

Reader 2: Sometimes we have long periods of time when all goes well. We have a good job, no one in the family is sick, the kids or grandkids are doing well in school, and we begin to rest on our laurels. We begin to think we are successful because of the hard work we have done. Then, suddenly, everything begins to fall apart: a problem to deal with, a difficult situation at work, or strife in the family. Maybe a storm has destroyed our home. We cannot understand: after all, we go to church every Sunday and even attend Bible class or teach Sunday School. Why is God allowing this to happen?

Then we open our Bibles and find encouragement — and time — mentioned in Jeremiah 29:11: _____

What are the promises of the passages below? Identify the time mentioned or implied.

Romans 8:38-39 _____

2 Corinthians 4:7-9 _____

Philippians 4:6–7 _____

Hebrews 10:12–14 _____

James 1:2–3 _____

1 Peter 5:6 _____

God has a reason for all that happens in our lives, but His plan isn't always what we had in mind. There are times when the problem may not suddenly go away, but God will show us how to get through it. He will lift us up out of our distress. We must trust in the Lord for all things, for He knows what is best for us.

All pray: Lord, sometimes I let the trials of this world take over my thoughts. I worry too much and forget to trust in You. Please strengthen my faith and remind me that You have plans for me that will not harm me, but rather will be for my good. In Jesus' name. Amen.

Sing: Hymn², Verse 5

Reader 3: In the previous meditations we talked about difficult times in our lives and how God has promised to help us through them. Life, however, is not always filled with problems.

In Ecclesiastes 3:4 we read: _____

God promises us times of rejoicing in Psalms 30:5b _____

These can include a graduation from high school or college, when we fell in love and married the man of our dreams, when we gave birth to a child, or when we see our children and grandchildren have happy times. Or there could be solutions to the problems mentioned earlier. God has a purpose for these as well in Psalms 126:2–3: _____

At such times we must remember to praise God and give Him credit for bringing these joys into our hearts. These are blessings sent from God, not events that just happened to occur. We can rejoice and tell others about all the blessings God has given to us — especially sending His Son, Jesus, to save us from our sins.

All pray: Thank You, heavenly Father, for all the blessings You have given to me. Thank You for all the times You have helped me through difficult situations and when You provided favorable solutions to problems that came my way. The blessings You have given me are numerous. Forgive me for the times I did not thank You or give You credit for what You have done for me. Fill my heart with joy and thanksgiving. Help me to live so that others know how great and loving You are and so that all around me may see how You are always in control of my life and do what is best for me. In Jesus' name. Amen.

Sing: Hymn², Verse 4

Leader: Let everything that has breath praise the LORD! Praise the LORD!

It's morning, it's noon, it's evening —

All: It's the right time to praise God!

Leader: You're happy, you're sad, you're busy —

All: It's the right time to praise God!

Leader: You're a new Christian, you're a lifelong believer, you're a person of godly wisdom —

All: It's the right time to praise God!

Leader: Praise God! You made me!

All: I praise you for I am fearfully and wonderfully made (Psalm 139:14a).

Leader: Praise God! You redeemed me!

All: Fear not, for I have redeemed you; I have called you by name, you are mine (Isaiah 43:1b).

Leader: Praise God for Jesus!

All: My soul magnifies the Lord, and my spirit rejoices in God my Savior (Luke 1:46b).

Sing: Hymn², Verse 2

Pray together Luther's Evening Prayer: I thank You, my heavenly Father, through Jesus Christ, Your dear Son, that You have graciously kept me this day; and I pray that You would forgive me all my sins where I have done wrong, and graciously keep me this night. For into Your hands I commend myself, my body and soul, and all things. Let Your holy angel be with me, that the evil foe may have no power over me. Amen.³

Sing: Hymn², Verse 6

¹ Adapted from Mustard Seed Devotion of September 25, 2018

² "All Praise to Thee, My God, This Night,"

LSB #883; LW #484; TLH #558)

³ TLH page 327

Miriam Neumann is a retired Lutheran school teacher. She and her husband, Leonard, live in Indianapolis, Indiana. She has served LWML at the local, zone, and district levels, holding various offices. She teaches Bible class and has written and led Bible studies for the yearly retreats sponsored by the women of her congregation.