

Time for a “Clean Sweep”?

How does your LWML group balance the old and the new? What do you save and what do you toss? Are there boxes of table decorations and files lurking around that haven't been used in years, but you're keeping them “just in case” you need them? Maybe you need to hold a “Clean Sweep”!

The “what to save and what to toss” issue is also pervasive in our events and meetings. The LWML struggles with removing outdated traditions and ideas to make room for new ones. Not all traditions need to be dropped, of course, but we need to ask hard questions about saving only that which is really beneficial to our work so we can move forward in our service to the Lord.

What works for one group may not work for another, as the gifts and talents of the women differ. Congregations vary between rural and urban needs. Therefore, there is no one solution for growth that will satisfy every group.

A tribute to the late Alma Kern in the Spring 2012 issue of the Lutheran Woman's Quarterly includes a quote that she wrote for the magazine in 1968: “Women no longer need the women's society of the church as a social outlet.” Alma goes on to say that we do, however, have something very valuable to offer to today's women. “We've got Good News! Jesus has given us the ‘pearl of great price.’ Let's display it as a jeweler would – in the most attractive way possible. Let's tell it with excitement, enthusiasm, and variety.” That is so true, even today!

We need to continue exploring, sharing, and believing that what we have in the Lutheran Women's Missionary League is a gift God wishes for us to share with the world. The work that we do through the LWML in service to our Lord and according to His will is valued and blessed by God.

Look at the focus of your group:

- Are you in God's Word regularly? He is the power: May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace as you trust in him, so that you may overflow with hope by the power of the Holy Spirit (Romans 15:13).
- Are you sharing your talents and resources with those in need? He is the refresher: ... he who refreshes others will himself be refreshed (Proverbs 11:25b).
- Are you displaying Jesus as the purpose of your group? It is in Him that we should put our trust: ...blessed is he who trusts in the Lord (Proverbs 16:20b).
